Important Dates and Upcoming Events

- Tuesday, October 1st the school store will be open during PRIDE for students to make purchases.
- Wednesday, October 2nd is Progress Report day. This is the halfway point in quarter 1. Please check your students' grades in PowerSchool and reach out to the teacher if you have any questions about their grades. Students should be asking teachers to sign them up for intervention during PRIDE if they missed an assignment or need support.
- Wednesday, October 2nd is our Annual College Fair. We have many colleges from CT and surrounding states attending to showcase their post-secondary schools and share information with students. Juniors and Seniors will visit the College Fair in the morning.
- Thursday, October 3rd is our first SAT PREP for juniors to assist them in preparing for the CT SAT School Day in April.
- Saturday, October 5th is the Homecoming Dance. More information will be sent out with specific information on PGRs that need to be completed to attend as well as permission slips to attend.
- Wednesday, October 9th is PSAT day for 9th, 10th and 11th graders in the morning. Please ensure your student arrives on time to school this day. 12th graders will participate in a post-secondary planning workshop while other students are taking the PSAT.

Thank you and Have a Wonderful Weekend,

Karen Lagace, Principal
