"Merton of the Movies"

The house lights dim; the footlights brighten; the curtain rises. The Class of 1948 presents "Merton of the Movies," a comedy in four acts of riotous entertainment.

The play recounts the adventures of Merton, small town grocery clerk, who has illusions of someday becoming a great actor. His experiences in Hollywood before the realization of his ambition gave Gordon Mullen, who played the leading role of Merton, the opportunity of portraying a wide variety of emotions, that ranged from utter pathos to uproarious comedy.

Tessie Kearns, the home town girl who aspires to be a screen writer, Elmer, the country bumpkin, Mr. Gashwiler, Merton's former employer, (played by Elizabeth Towne, Donald Cutter, and Joseph Robinson respectively), all helped to set the stage by their excellent work in the first act. The second act finds Merton in Hollywood, experiencing indescribable difficulties in beginning his career. His struggles with the casting director, whom Laura Gavrelis portrayed with suitable severity, and Rosenblatt, the frantic shouting director, played by Paul Cianciolo, added to the memorably hilarious evenings. By the end of the third act, Merton's experiences had included an encounter with Harold Parmalee, film idol of millions, played by Thomas McGrath, and at least a glimpse of the beautiful Beulah Baxter of the silver screen, played by Janet Gardner. In the fourth act, Merton, dejected over his failure as a dramatic actor, is finally convinced of his great potentialities as a comedy star. He not only attains fame in this field, but also wins the worldly Montague Girl, ably enacted by Barbara Jane Penny. Barbara Jane's portrayal of the leading feminine role revealed her unusual theatrical ability. Other outstanding performers were Jean Reid, as Mrs. Patterson, Milon Thorley, as Pa Montague, and Charles MacKinnon, as Weller.

Long weeks of arduous preparation preceded the evening's performances, one of the highlights of the class's last year at Medford High. To Mr. John A. Ricker Jr., Director, and his advisor, Mr. Leslie R. Carey, goes the sincere thanks of the Class of '48, and much of the credit for such a fine performance.

Class Day

History of Class of 1948

September 1945! This was the time when the class of 1948, in its sophomore year, was first introduced to Medford High School. Those were the days when we wandered hopelessly about the school receiving wrong directions from our "friends", the upper-classmen, and we "slipped" into classrooms ten minutes late. At first we were about ready to "throw in the towel" and call it "quits." Soon, however, we had adapted ourselves to our new surroundings, and we were ready to do our duty. The sophomore year proved to be an interesting and exciting year. We pitched in and went to work, and at long last we were recognized as part of Medford High School.

We received aid from our class advisors, Miss DeWolfe and Mr. Cangiano. In our first election in this new school, we elected worthy students as our class officers. They were: — Richard Ellis, President; Phyllis Alves, Vice-President; Marylou O'Connor, Secretary; and Kearin Dunn, Treasurer. We began to plan for the biggest and best sophomore class, ever.

We became acquainted with our headmaster, Mr. Leonard, and learned the rules of the school at the frequent assemblies which were held.

The band represented us at Gloucester and at the Band Concert in Chevalier Auditorium. Plans were made for the Sophomore Hop and a gay skit, "Cinderella Notsenbomb" written by Paul Cianciolo and directed by Phyllis Alves. With the social season coming to an end, thoughts went off to summer vacations.

After a short and restful vacation we returned to our mighty alma mater, ready to start our junior year. We took delight in giving similar directions to the new sophomores and confusing them as we had been the year before. It seemed we were hardly settled when it was election time again. After a spirited campaign, the final decision was: — Thomas Kelley, President; Nancy Kelley, Vice-President; Jane Hayward, Secretary; and Robert Duffy, Treasurer. We could not have chosen better officers no matter how long we searched.

We brought great disgrace upon ourselves by participating in the infamous strike of October 24, 1946.

The soccer team had another successful season, with a record of 11 wins, 1 tie, and 3 losses. The football and basketball teams proved to have spirit. Laura Gavrelis, Amy Morrissey, Betty Caldwell, May Marquebrueck and Barbara Labadini kept Medford in the spotlight by their outstanding achievements in the girls' sports: basketball, field hockey, and softball.

Our famous band had another glorious season. We were host to the other schools in the Eastern Massachusetts Music Festival. It was a thrilling spectacle and proved to be a gala affair. The band was also invited to Montreal, Canada, where it received much praise.

It was time for the Junior Prom. Posters were placed in every conceivable spot in the school. The "prom" went over big and everyone had a good time. Soon, the juniors elected marshals and ushers for the senior graduation exercises.

June was here before we realized it. We were ready once more to throw up our books and to have a glorious vacation without school work.

September 1947! This meant many things to us. We were returning to our school as over-lords. We had finally attained that goal. All eyes were focused on us. We must carry on the work left to us. We must make this the best senior class there had been or would be.

Elections came up again. For a third time we chose excellent officers. They were: Thomas White, President; Laura Gavrelis, Vice President; Barbara Bowman, Secretary; and William Harrington, Treasurer.

The football team went on to prove its might. The "Mighty Mustangs" rolled over all opposition and took the Class A State Championship in stride. The team was invited to Jacksonville, Florida, to play Robert E. Lee High School in the Alligator Bowl Game, on December 12, 1947. Although it ended in a 0-0 deadlock, we won a moral victory. When the team returned home, it received a memorable celebration. The high school was given a holiday with school dismissed at 10:00 A. M. Those outstanding in football were: — Tom Kelley, Gino Pagluica, Ed Field, Bill O'Keefe, Dick Rachels, Dick Lawrence, and Patsy Zona.

Our band, still carrying on and bringing great recognition to Medford High School, distinguished itself in another concert when we played host to Deering High School of Portland. The band also went to New York, making the trip during the April vacation.

While the band journeyed to New York, a group of fifty-four seniors made the trip to Washington. It proved to be an interesting experience and was enjoyed immensely by all who made the trip.

The Senior Prom, the year's biggest social event, was held in the Armory, January 30th. It was staged with much splendor. The highlight of the evening came when "Pookie" unmasked. He was the little man who was going to the prom.

To make this outstanding year stand out even more, the senior class gave a play, "Merton of the Movies." It was the first play since 1946. It was presented on the nights of February 12 and 13, and it proved to be the most successful class play.

Seniors began to cram for the annual drudgery of the forthcoming college boards. On April 3, the fate of the seniors was to be decided. This was the day of the examination.

Soon we began to rehearse our graduation music with the "Last Chord" as the class song. We elected the orators, prophets, and historians for Class Day. The Senior Reception and Class Day were received enthusiastically.

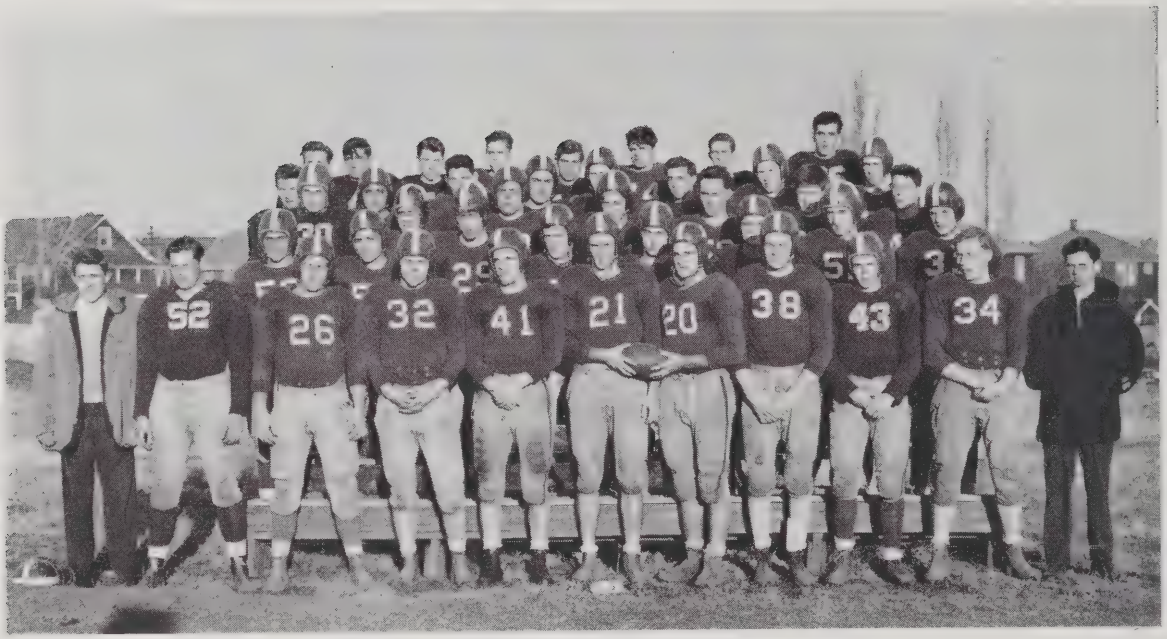

We hope to be remembered by our teachers as a group of industrious, likable, cooperative boys and girls. We also hope to be remembered for our outstanding achievements in the classroom, in the auditorium, on the playing field, or wherever else we have been. On the other hand, we, the Class of '48, will always have precious memories of our years at Medford High School.

In parting, let us hope that the friendships we have formed in our three years at the high school will continue and grow stronger, that the lessons our teachers so patiently taught us will bear fruit, and that wherever we go we shall always be a credit to Medford High School.

MEDFORD 7 ARLINGTON 0

The thrilling saga of the Mustangs' rise to the State Championship began with a 7-0 victory over Arlington. A pass from Tom Kelley to Hartley Greenleaf (standing in the end zone) brought Medford its first touchdown and initial victory of the year. Packed with thrills and chills, this game was to be the precedent for the whole season, as time after time the Mustangs emerged with the laurels after hard fought contests.

MEDFORD 12 BROCKTON 7

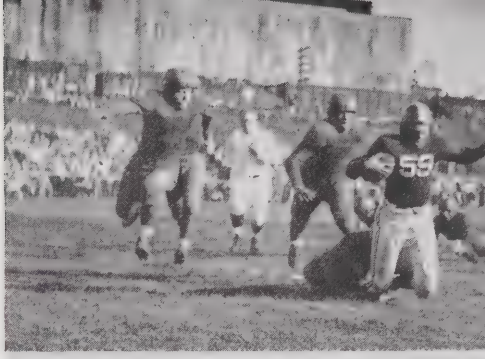

The Mustangs' hard hitting fullback co-captain Gino Pagluica plowed 5 yards over left tackle to put Medford ahead. After Brockton had taken the lead 7-6, a 50 yard aerial from Tom Kelley to Eddie Field gave the Mustangs their second victory in the waning minutes of the final quarter.

MEDFORD 6 SOMERVILLE 0

Eddie Field carried the ball over from three yards out as the climax of a 55 yard run (under the guidance of Hartley Greenleaf, who quarterbacked for the ailing Kelley) to give the Mustangs their only score of the afternoon. The game was featured by a series of odd incidents, which included a collision between Dick Rachels and the referee, who stopped Dick two yards shy of a touchdown.

MEDFORD 19 MELROSE 0

Medford's two diminutive guards, Patsy Zona and Gerry Dente, (outstanding all year) stole the limelight as the Mustangs, smarting from two previous defeats at the hands of the Red Raiders, walloped Melrose by a resounding 19-0 score. Dente snatched the pigskin from a Melrose back to set up Tom Kelley's pass to end Charlie Bowles for Medford's first tally, while Zona intercepted a Red Raider aerial which resulted in another touchdown. Dick Lawrence twice crossed the double stripe only to have his efforts nullified by penalties.

MEDFORD 12 EVERETT 7

The Mustangs staged an uphill battle to finally subdue the heavier Everett aggregation in what will be remembered by many Medford partisans as the most thrilling schoolboy grid clash in many years. A spectacular 60 yard jaunt by Dick Rachels and a quarterback sneak by co-captain Tom Kelley united to give the Mustangs a well-deserved triumph over the Crimson Tide. Co-captain Gino Pagluica and center Dick Murphy played a brilliant defensive game while backing up the line. Ken Kinchla's game-saving tackle in the shadow of the goal posts proved to be the outstanding individual defensive feature of the day.

MEDFORD 27 NEWTON 12

Gino Pagluica's three touchdowns highlighted Medford's victory over a vastly improved Newton club. Frank "Gramps" Ucello played a commendable game at center while filling in for Dick Murphy who was out with a leg infection.

MEDFORD 7 WALTHAM 0

By virtue of an 80-yard sustained drive employing 25 plays and more than a full quarter, Medford defeated a powerful Watch City team with but 34 seconds to play. Co-Captain Tom Kelley scored from the one foot line to successfully conclude one of the longest sustained marches in the annals of schoolboy gridiron history.

MEDFORD 13 CHELSEA 6

Co-captain Tom Kelley splashed through the deep mud to two touchdowns to pace the Mustangs to the victory which clinched the Eastern Massachusetts Class A title for Medford. Despite the loss of the capable co-captain Gino Pagluica who was benched with a back injury and the poor condition of the field, the Mustangs waded through to their eighth consecutive victory.

MEDFORD 13 MALDEN 7

Two touchdown passes, the first to Eddie Field and the second to Dick Lawrence provided the margin of victory for the Blue and White over the Golden Tornado. Tom Kelley's defensive performance surpassed his two touchdown passes as he twice stopped Malden's scat-backs on their way to pay dirt. As always Pagluica was at hand to gain much needed yardage or to plug the gaps in the line at crucial moments. This Turkey Day Classic culminated a highly successful season for Coach Tom O'Connor and his squad.

MEDFORD 0 ROBERT E. LEE 0

A thrilling post-season "Gator Bowl" game with Robert E. Lee High of Jacksonville, Florida, demonstrated the strength and fighting spirit of the Mustang team to the nation. Under adverse conditions the Mustangs outplayed and held scoreless the heavily favored Lee Generals who were thankful for a tie. Although the Mustangs failed to score, they twice were within a few yards of the Lee goal-line only to be thwarted by penalties.

SUMMARY

It would indeed be difficult to say that any one person was reponsible for the success enjoyed by the Mustangs this year on the gridiron. Coaches Tom O'Connor, Marty Donavon, and Joe Murphy did a splendid job in molding, from average material, a well synchronized outfit that gave no quarter and asked no quarter. Many players may be heralded as unsung heroes. Had it not been for boys like Hartley Greenleaf and Dick Rachels (to mention a few) whose all-around versatility and urge to win proved unyielding, our team's fine record might have been blemished. The class of "48" shall always remember our Mustangs as the fightingest and most spirited team ever to represent Medford High School on the gridiron.

Soccer

Coach Allyn B. Stillman began soccer as soon as the school bells sounded in September. Under the capable leadership of Co-Captains Bob Romano and Joe Caloggero, the team soon took shape, as many of the fellows were lettermen. During the whole season, the team displayed that Blue and White spirit, which is always associated with the Medford High teams. High scorer for the season was Dick Buckley with six goals. At the end of the season, the lettermen elected Cliff Thompson the captain of the "48" team.

Medford opened the season with a 3-0 victory over Belmont. In the first period, Dick Buckley skidded the ball into the goal from about 25 feet out. Steve LaMarca accounted for one in the second period. In the third period, the ball ricochetted from a Belmont player and past the goalie. Since Cy Livoti was the last Medford player to touch the ball, he received credit for the goal.

In the next game, Medford downed a hard fighting Watertown team 4-0 at Playstead Park. Lymie Shackett accounted for the first goal at the fifteen minute mark in the first period. Herb Foss and Cy Livote made it 3-0 in the second period. Steve LaMarca made the last score in the third period.

A good contest resulted when the Blue and White traveled to Cambridge to play the Harvard Freshman. The first score was made by the Crimson, when Houston floated a high one through the uprights. Cy Livoti evened up the score in the third period on a brilliant snap shot, which made the only tie of the season.

The Stillman boys suffered their first defeat from a heavy Tabor Academy eleven. Despite Jack Carroll's lone goal, Tabor won 2-1.

The next game was played at Andover Academy, where the Blue and White downed the opposition 1-0. The teams were very evenly matched; and, in the fourth period, Carl Sandmo made the best penalty kick of the year. The goal tender did not have a chance.

Medford handed Belmont Hill a 4-0 shutout at West Medford in the next game. Buckley and LaMarca made it 2-0 at the half. In the fourth period, Sandmo made two goals to complete the scoring.

The next game was played at Exeter Academy where Medford went down to defeat 2-1. Herb Foss scored the only Blue and White goal in the game that Exeter claimed was their best of the year.

In the second encounter with Belmont, the Medford boys gained another shutout as they downed the opposition 3-0. In the second period, Dick Buckley got the first goal, while Ken Powers and Herb Foss finished the scoring in the next period.

Governor Dummer dealt severely with the Blue and White as it blanked us 2-0. It was in this game that Captain-elect, Cliff Thompson headed a ball; and while in the air, he was accidently pushed. As a result he split his head just above the eyebrow.

In the next game against the Tufts Junior Varsity on their homegrounds, Dick Buckley and Lymie Shackett each got two goals, as the Medfordites romped 4-1.

Medford was once again shut out as Watertown won 1-0 in the second meeting between the two high schools.

In the second encounter with the Tufts Junior Varsity, Medford won another contest, blanking them 3-0. Carl Sandmo, Art Terrill, and Steve LaMarca each made one goal to turn back the Jumbo men.

Medford handed the New Bedford Vocational men a 3-0 downfall, as Art Terrill, Carl Sandmo, and Cy Livoti each put the ball past the frantic goalie.

Medford ended the season with a shutout over the engineers on the M. I. T. Freshman team. Dick Buckley scored the only goal in the first half. Ken Powers, Lymie Shackett, and Anthony LaMarca each accounted for a score in the last two periods, making the final score 4-0.

The record for the entire season was nine victories, four losses, and one tie.

Hockey

The Hockey Team demonstrated in the initial contest of the year that it was a definite contender for the G. B. I. title. Early in the season the Medford pucksters took possession of the top rung in the G. B. I. ladder and proceeded to defend that coveted position against all comers. The team sported a very impressive record (7 won, 1 tied, 1 lost) as it entered the playoffs. Its only defeat had come at the hands of the capable Exeter outfit in a non-league game. Needing only one win to clinch the league title, Medford must have incurred the "vengeance of Nemesis," for, amid a torrent of tough breaks, the Mustangs were unable to pluck a single victory. The disputed Arlington contest proved to be the deciding game of the playoffs as Arlington gained the official decision 3-2 with two very questionable goals. Charley Abele, the league's high scorer, and Randy Whately, the Mustangs' outstanding goal-tender, were chosen to play on the "A" All Star Team. Medford's representatives on the "B" All Stars were Andy Gaffey, Ed Power, and Bill MacNair.

Basketball

Although plagued with injuries and loss of key men throughout the season, not once did Coach John Bohn's boys fail to play heads-up ball. The team lacked height and depth but not spirit. Dick Santini, a junior, played brilliant ball and finished up the season as Medford's high scorer with a total of 115 points. Co-captains Bob Doherty and Kenny Powers also sparked on the court, proving themselves to be capable leaders. This year's squad consisted chiefly of sophomores and juniors. Only three letter men are graduating and they are as follow:

Baseball

Coach: Arthur G. Terrill

Co-Managers: Russell Olive and Warren Ellis

This year Coach Terrill will have to start from scratch in developing a typical representative of Medford baseball. Tom Kelley is the only returning veteran who held a starting position on last year's nine. In addition to Kelley, a long hitting centerfielder, there are four lettermen: "Dewey" O'Connor, who is expected to become an outstanding hurler; "Jackie" Lloyd, a catcher with the experience and ability to lead the team to a successful season; John Bridge, a powerful clouter who can pitch, play first base, or hold down a berth in the outer garden; and Donald Cooney, an outfielder with power and speed. These boys provide the nucleus around which Coach Terrill must build his team. A large turnout is expected in the competition to clinch each of the nine starting positions this spring.

Prospects from the 1947 Legion team, fall baseball, and other sources include the following boys:

Catchers — Patsy Zona, Lyman Shackett, Allie Power, Ed Power, Dave Santin, and William Intopper

Pitchers — Bill Ford, Cliff Thompson, Dick Santini, Gordon Mullen, Paul O'Connor, Matty Maggio, Herbie Foss, Richard Druken, Robert Briggs

First Base — Frank Toperzer, Dick Buckley, Ted Peasley, Phil Walley, Edward Todd

Second Base — Larry Drennan, Bob Price, Dick Furr, Henry Doll

Third Base — Ken Powers, Ray McLean, Charles Odams, Jack Carroll, Bill Lynch

Short Stop — Dick Santini, Dan Molinari, Richard Druken, Bernie Mathews

Outfielders — Edward Welch, Arnold Morrocco, Joseph McLaughlin, Steve Molinari, Arthur Terrill, Cyrus Livoti, Joseph Robinson, Joseph McGonagle

Field Hockey

Captain: Laura Gavrelis
Co-managers: Rita D'Errico and Grace Graffeo
Coach: Miss Phyllis Stewart
Mascot: Charlotte Smallidge

Practicing faithfully twice a week at the Webster Street field, the girls' field hockey team managed to master their dodges and lunges by dodging the dogs and the seemingly uninterested football players. who were continually crossing the field at the most innopportune moments. Although the girls failed to win a game, their tie with Arlington marked the first time the Arlington girls have not been victorious over a Medford field hockey team since the inception of this game at the school.

Betty Caldwell and Amy Morrissey sparked the forward line with their expert stick handling and pass work, while May Marquebreuck backed them up with her outstanding defensive play. Torvy Johnson scored the only two goals registered by the Medfordites. Alice Whear's brilliant goal tending repeatedly checked the enemy's assaults.

Regardless of the outcome of the game, the team exhibited great fighting spirit and sportsmanship throughout the season.

Girls' Tennis

The earnestness with which twenty-five girls participated in the intramural tournament in the fall and spring predicts a successful season for the tennis team. The matches were arranged to create a keener interest in the sport and to give the girls experience and the opportunity of perfecting their skills before the regular season began. Because few veterans will return, the positions on the team will be hotly contested, and Medford is expected to field a strong team against Winchester, Belmont, Arlington, Malden, and several other local opponents.

Frances Kelley, who has played first singles for two years, will doubtless be the main-stay for this year's varsity, while Ann Doherty, another strong contender for a position on the team, also played some excellent tennis last season.

With such skill and enthusiasm as have been already displayed, the girls are certain to enjoy a successful season on the courts.

Coach: Miss Phyllis Stewart

The basketball team had a fair season this year, winning three, losing two, and tying one. Playing their best in every game, the girls were never outclassed, and many visiting coaches and officials remarked about their fine guarding and shooting.

Rita D'Errico's and May Marquebreuck's speed enabled them to intercept many passes and to elude their opposing forwards as the Medford guards continually checked their opponents' attack and passed the ball to the forwards, who in turn shot it through the hoop. Chief playmaker and high scorer for the club with forty-nine points was Barbara Labadini, while Betty Caldwell was a close second with forty-seven.

Intramural Basketball

Girls' Intramural Basketball is a very popular sport as was illustrated by the extremely large turnout when the season opened. The games were held once a week for five weeks in the girls' gymnasium. Led by Ann Sheehan, Peggy Knox, Eleanor Schalezarde, Rosalie Cultrera, Ann Bruno, and Helen Bellino, the captains, along with their own fine spirit and team work, the girls gave each other keen competition. At the end of the basketball season, a winner is decided on, as a result of the round-robin schedule. The able coaches are the Misses Luce and Ellard.

Track

Once again Coach Henry Hormel came up with a reputable track team that finished the indoor season in a blaze of glory by placing second in the State Meet against a strong group of contenders. Several boys were outstanding in their specialties throughout the season. Tom McGrath, a runner of great ability, was unbeatable in dual meets in the 600 yard run and copped second place in the State Meet. Tom Kelley did his share of the scoring in the high jump and the hurdles. Herb Collins proved his worth by taking first place in the dash in all of Medford's dual meets except one and placed fourth in the State Meet. Jimmy Beall, a newcomer to track from the vocational school, surprised all track followers with his exceptional running in the thousand yard and one mile events. Last but not least, a superb relay team consisting of Collins, McGrath, Lawrence, Terry, and Field highlighted a highly successful 1947-48 indoor track season.

Softball

Last year the softball team, captained by Beatrice Fuccione, was undefeated for the second straight season. Since the girls were so successful in piling up the score in the early innings, Miss Luce sent in her capable substitutes to hold Medford's opponents and to add up the runs. By the end of the season eighteen girls had earned their letters.

Carrying the weight of the pitching duties Betty Caldwell baffled her rivals with a large assortment of pitches, while her team-mates gave her support in the field. May Marquebreuck's outstanding first-base play coupled with her great hitting prowess, was an important factor in the team's success. Pairing with May in a brilliant fielding combination was Amy Morrissey, whose play at shortstop, in addition to her timely hitting, helped make Medford a championship team. To add to the team's superior hitting and fielding were Jane Hayward, Torvy Johnson, Ruth Kelley, and Elsie Wellington.

With only three regulars gone and considerable talent in the lower classes, the team, led by co-captains Betty Caldwell and May Marquebreuck, anticipate another winning season.

Badminton

Girls' Badminton, singles and doubles, is a game played with rackets and feathered shuttle cocks. This sport is popular in England, though it has a small following in New York and Boston. As this is one of the two vicinities in the United States that features badminton, we should be pleased that it is enjoyed at Medford High. Badminton calls for accurate footwork, sure shots, and an experienced eye. The girls derive much pleasure and comradeship from this game.

Intramural Volley Ball

Girls' Intramural Volleyball is a ball game which is a modification of tennis, the hands being substituted for a racket and a special 9 ounce ball being used. An indoor sport which helps to develop skill and coordination, volleyball is a fast-moving game which calls forth all one's ability to think quickly and play accurately. The girls must be capable and experienced, for some of their games are played against the boys. Played on Thursdays, the games offered much enjoyment and companionship.

Girls' Bowling

Girls' Bowling, an up and coming sport, is enjoyed by many Medford High girls. This year, as an incentive for the players, five teams will be chosen and will vie with each other for the winning position. Each week the individual scores are to be averaged and then added for the team's percentage. At the close of the bowling season, the team with the highest score will be judged the winner. Under the capable leadership of the Misses Luce and Kelley, the bowlers look forward to much enjoyment at the Daylight Alleys. Let us hope that the same spirit will prevail and make Girls' Bowling a great sport in the years to come.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders of the 1947-48 season helped spark our football team on to great victories. These girls aroused plenty of school spirit and, even in spite of some cold and rainy weather at the Chelsea game, they cheered lustily and refused to be disturbed by their soaked appearance. Not only did these girls cheer at the football games, but they also added their support to the basketball games. This year's cheerleaders were among the best, and they and their faculty adviser, Mr. Edwin F. Pidgeon, deserve a rousing cheer.

The cheerleaders were:

Biography Editors

The Biography Editors, under the efficient guidance of Miss Daggett, is established at the beginning of the third quarter. After one girl is appointed from each homeroom, two co-chairmen are chosen. They take over the meetings and give the assignments to the members, each one of whom is responsible for the biography of every student in her homeroom. The girls have frequent meetings, during which they compose a complete alphabetical list of the students in the senior class. The Staff is also responsible for the proof-reading of the year book and for having the biographies correspond with the pictures. The members include:

Vocational Student Council

The Vocational Student Council is composed of two representatives elected from each of the departments in the Vocational School. Some of the responsibilities carried out by the council this year were supervising the lunch room during the Vocational lunch period, organizing dances, aiding in the school assemblies, cooperating in various drives, and collecting money for the automatic record player for the school public address system which plays records before school and during recess.

House of Delegates

President: Tom Kelley
Secretary: Jane Hayward
Adviser: Edwin F. Pidgeon
Mr. Cangiano

The members of the House discussed the possibilities for a debating club. Mr. Pidgeon suggested a forum meeting procedure. Also the members stressed the idea of having a more perfect organization. The House of Delegates' most important issue this year was that of the fair distribution of tickets for the Thanksgiving day football game. Mr. Leonard, Mr. Bucci, and Coach O'Connor spoke on the matter. As one of the chief duties of a delegate is to explain to his homeroom situations that might arise, each member was instructed to explain the method of distribution of the tickets.

This organization is a good one for our school because it permits the pupils to have a voice in the governing of Medford High.

Library Staff

The cheerful young lady who passes out the library slips, checks off that late book, or helps one find the material for that biology notebook, is a member of the well-known library staff. Under the able guidance of Miss Dorothy Hardy, our librarian, each girl works very hard during study periods and after school helping to keep the library running smoothly and efficiently. Besides a knowledge of library procedure, the girls, from their contacts with the students of the school, also gain valuable experience which will help them in many future occupations.

Tech Club

The Tech Club has completed ten successful years under the able guidance of Mr. Rogers. It has enjoyed many interesting activities such as factory and shop visitations given in Engineering Schools. Also motion pictures have been shown of various manufacturing plants.

During the fall the Club made its annual visit; this time they went to the General Electric Plant in Lynn. Sixty-five members spent the afternoon inspecting the various shops, laboratories, and drafting rooms.

The Club Officers for 47-48 are:

President: Louis Schulte
Vice President: John Becker
Secretary and Treasurer: Russell Olive

COOPERATIVE OFFICE TRAINING GROUP I

COOPERATIVE OFFICE TRAINING GROUP II

Cooperative Office Training Class

The Cooperative Office Training Class is composed of senior girls who desire a more extensive knowledge of business than a high school education ordinarily offers. The requirements for the class include good attendance, above-average marks, favorable recommendations from teachers, the signed permission of parents, and, most important of all, employability. These girls work on a two-week alternating basis. One group attends school for two weeks; the other group reports to business offices. Then, for the next two weeks, the positions are reversed. While at work, the girls receive a regular starting salary, and are extremely well supervised. Rating sheets are sent to the school by the employers, checking the abilities of each individual girl. Then special instruction is given with respect to each girl's particular weak points. Not only do the girls get educational guidance, but they also attend a class in charm and personality. The girls are continually being shifted at their offices, in order that they may be better qualified to choose the particular business field for which they are best suited. Miss Roughsedge, their efficient advisor, undertook this plan as an experiment in the new type of education. It has proved unusually successful if one were to judge by the number of commendations that have been received. Medford continues to lead in the field of business education thanks to Miss Roughsedge and the following "Co-ops":

Art Club

The Senior Art Club for 1948 has elected the following officers:

President: Robert Mellen
Vice President: Adriana Simmonetti
Secretary: Joan Kentley
Treasurer: Allen Babcock

Their first social event was a Valentine party. A St. Patrick's Day celebration was held in March. Other parties are being planned with puppet shows and dancing. The club has started to make some dolls to be sent to French Children. There will also be meetings for sketching and lectures on art.

Italian Club

Under the capable direction of Miss Bruno the Italian Club has again successfully completed a year filled with many activities that every member can be proud to look back upon. The purpose of the club is to study and appreciate the language and culture, such as music, arts, and customs of Italy. Pupils taking Italian are eligible for membership. Among its many activities the PreLenten Party, the "Carnevale", is a prominent one. It is usually in the form of a masked ball and is held on the Tuesday preceding Lent, given in real Italian fashion, with Italian foods, music, and games. This year the members attended the Metropolitan Opera performance of "La Traviata," which they first studied. They also made trips to the Garden Museum and Museum of Fine Arts.

The Band

The band is one of the school's most successful organizations. It brings a great deal of credit to our school as a leader in the field of music. This has been possible because of an especially organized plan which makes it possible for any student to commence the study of an instrument and through his own ability find a place for himself in one of the four bands organized by the Music Department. There is always an opportunity for new students in the High School to participate in this activity. A conference with Mr. Schoonmaker may make it possible for you to become a member of this outstanding organization. Medford has more potential musicians than any other community of comparable size in the East. Several other cities have copied this system. The band has consistently held first division honors in State, New England, and National Contests. Last year the band was invited and attended an International Contest in Montreal.

Although the band participates in school activities such as appearing at all football games, assemblies, and other school functions, it has played at many civic affairs such as the mayor's inauguration and at several military funerals. This year the band gave a series of concerts to support the cost of their annual spring trip. Much of the credit for the outstanding success of the band is due to its capable director, Mr. Schoonmaker, who plans its activities and spends much time in its training. We feel that Mr. Schoonmaker should be highly commended for the success of the band.

Girls' Club

The M. H. S. Girls' Club is a group of twenty juniors and twenty seniors who have joined together to promote their ideals of friendship, pride, self-respect, sincerity, charity, and patriotism. The outstanding dates on their calendar have been the Welcome to Juniors in September, the October Mothers' Tea, a wonderful Christmas Party, complete with Santa Claus, at which they entertained a group of little children, the January Swap Party, and in April, the Juniors entertain the Seniors. The climax of their activities is their lively banquet, the festive occasion at which the new members are inducted. They have had an eventful year!

Credit for the Club's success is due to its Faculty Advisers, Miss Junkins and Miss Rita Kelley, as well as to its officers: President, Jane Hayward; Vice-President, Laura Gavrelis; Corresponding Secretary, Nancy Knor; Recording Secretary, Nancy Kelly; Treasurer, Antoinette Navarro.

Business Girls' Club

The book-shaped pendant with a rose and a quill in the center identifies a member of the M. H. S. Business Girls' Club. Under the direction of the Misses Hubbard and Mosessian, the club serves as a contact between the classroom and the business world. Sixty-senior girls, including members of the co-operative course, meet together at intervals during the school year for social and educational purposes.

Their many activities this past season have included a picnic, a splash party, a theatre party, and a visit to State's Prison.

The officers are:

President: Stacy Gamos
Vice President: Irene Perrin
Recording Secretary: Marie Ryan
Corresponding Secretary: Mae Marquebrueck
Treasurer: Frances Puccio

Orchestra

Where is that music coming from? It's the Orchestra, and they're good. Their major performance this year was playing at the Class Play. They are looking into the future with hopes of giving an orchestral concert. This group of musicians under the direction of Miss Eckmann consists of the following:

Stamp Club

One of the most fascinating and popular hobbies today is stamp collecting. However, the enjoyment of this hobby reaches its fullest expression in contacts with other stamp enthusiasts. To provide such an opportunity and to promote an interest in philately the M. H. S. Stamp Club was founded in 1934. Under the direction of Miss Katharine Adams, the fifteen members meet twice a month to hold auctions, play games, and exchange stamps with other philatelists.

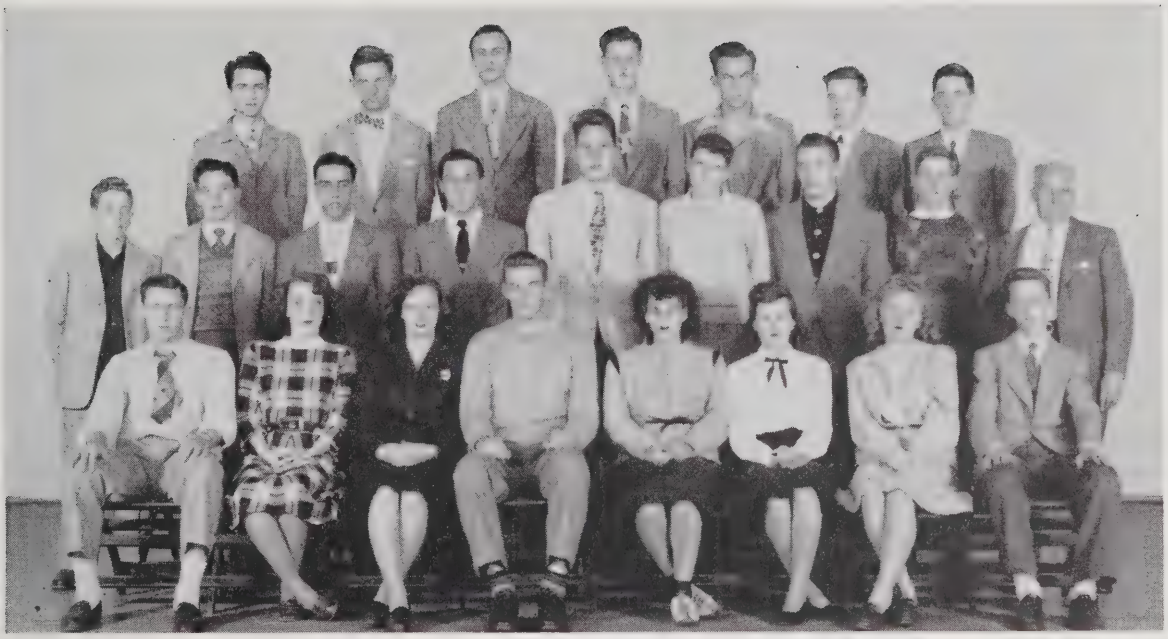

The officers are:
President: Charles Reynolds
Secretary: John Broderick
Treasurer: Charles LaMarca

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club is an organization which was established to instruct girls in the art of handicraft. This year the club has a very definite goal to reach: to raise enough money to purchase a moving-picture machine. The Bazaar, which was held just before Christmas, netted even more profits than had been hoped for. If all the projects are as successful, the new projector will soon become a reality. Under the capable direction of Miss Baker and efficient leadership of Phyllis Alves, the club will certainly attain its goal. The officers of the club are: president, Phyllis Alves; vice-president, Claire Moriarty; secretary, Rose Elliott; and treasurer, Betty Ann Jackson. The other members of the Home Economics Club include:

Protective Department

The Protective Department is one of the unsung organizations of Medford High. This group of students, under the supervision of Mr. Pidgeon, does a great deal to promote order and saftey in the school. It is the duty of these students to watch lockers and to guide and inform visitors. They must tend the doors while classes are passing and during times of emergency, such as a fire drill. Other duties include the exclusion of students from restricted corridors and prohibition of all eating in the school outside the lunchroom. Each member of the Protective Department is a vital part of this organization's effort to make and retain a safe, clean, orderly school.

All-Girl Choir

The All-Girl Choir, one of the High School's most popular musical groups, made its first appearance with the Concert Band at its Fall Concert when they sang with the Wollaston Glee Club of Quincy, Massachusetts, in the Finale of the concert. The number chosen for this event was the famous "Battle Hymn of the Republic" in a thrilling new arrangement by Peter Wilhousky. This number calls for a special chorus of women's voices as well as the full male chorus. We were very proud to be chosen to appear with this outstanding male chorus in such a thrilling performance.

The girls looked charming in their beautiful evening gowns of light pastel shades. It is hoped before the Spring Concert that it may be possible for the whole choir to be in gowns of uniform design which we feel will greatly add to the appearance of the group.

The choir is assisting the band again at its mid-winter band concert, singing a group of numbers by Gershwin, Romberg, Friml, and other popular composers. We hope to participate in the annual State and New England Festivals in the late Spring. The girls look forward with great pleasure to the activities of this group and find the training profitable in cultural training.

Camera Club

The Camera Club was organized among the student body to create a livelier interest in photography. Under the very capable guidance of Miss Catherine Burke, definite gains have been made toward that goal. The president, Bruce Truesdale, has given interesting informative lectures on both elementary and more advanced methods of developing, as well as led discussions on the correct photographic procedure. With this added knowledge the club hopes to be able to compete in more contests and add photographic material to school publications. From their monthly dues the members hope to be able to furnish the darkroom with sufficient equipment to enable students to develop and print their own photographs. Encouraging the members in all their plans are the following officers: president, Bruce Truesdale; vice-president, Madeline Hertigan; treasurer, Lawrence Webster; and secretary, Barbara Janes. Besides these the membership includes:

Edward Andrew
Loretta Beatrice
Peter Bove
Edward Callahan
John Coughlin
David Cox
Mary Jane Curtin
Herbert Lindsay
Robert Lynn
Mary Jane McInerney
Robert McLeague
Kenneth Menard
Lawrence Meserve
Paul Mulligan
Charles O'Brien
Robert O'Connor
Joseph Pizzano
Barbara Pope

Battalion Officers

The Battalion under the supervision of Captain Wellington and Colonel O'Brien is a part of the school curriculum. The officers are: First Capt. Robert Addonizio, Cadet Captain Russell Olive, and Lieutenants Warren Ellis and Richard Green. All the cadet officers are four year men with the exception of Dick Green who is a three year man. The Battalion participates in all practical military training, guard duty, and marching.

Ski Club

After all the snow that fell on New England, the Ski Club did not venture to North Conway during the 1948 skiing season. It so happened that the week the trip was scheduled to take place, no snow appeared on the slopes of Cranmore Mountain. If the club had attempted the journey, its week of comfort, fun, excitement (and broken bones), would have been spent like this:

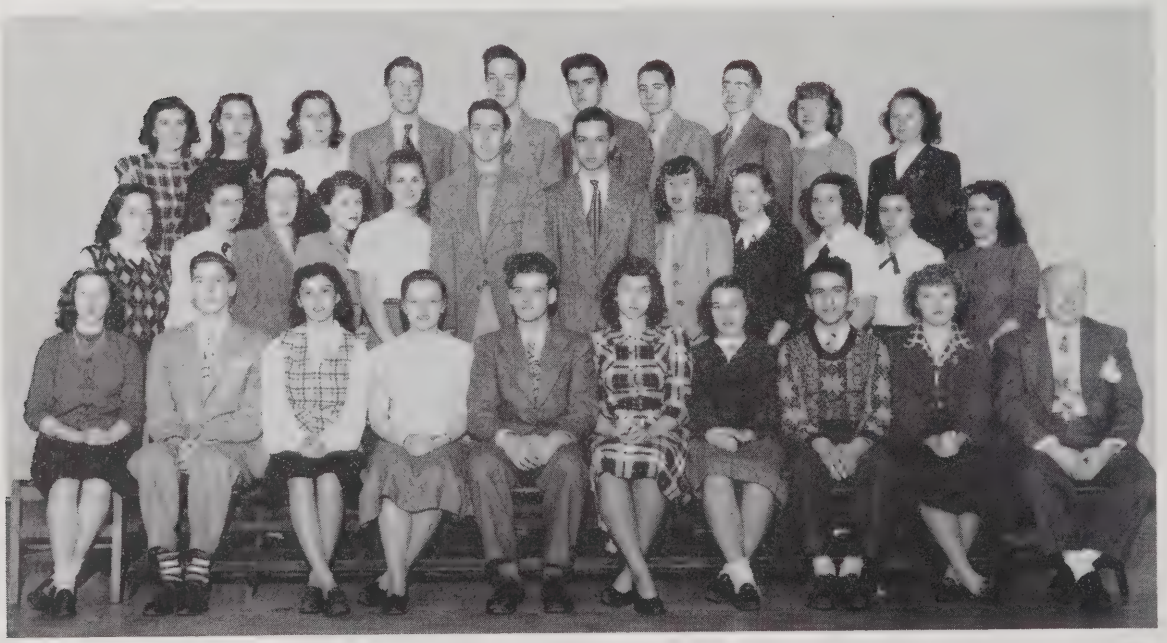

A train would have been boarded at 8:00 A. M. on Monday, February 23rd, at North Station. Arriving at the Coach and Four the clubbers would have had lunch and next would have trodded to the slopes with skis on their backs. The slope would have then been adorned with daring adventurers, some standing, others, shall we say, indisposed. On returning to the inn, the fellows and girls would have freshened up and presented themselves at the dinner table. After nightfall, most of the vacationers would have gone out to seek more excitement. Those who preferred would have remained at home, some playing cards, maybe cribbage, others retiring after a day of aches and pains.

The clubbers who took the trip the preceding year returned home joyfully praising their week's excursion. It was really pitiful to witness the expression on the faces of the dejected skiers this year, when they received the news that the trip was cancelled.

Honor Society

This year a new member was added to the proud association of Medford High School. Many of the schools in America had incorporated chapters of the National Honor Society, and Medford decided to follow their example. The purpose of forming a chapter at Medford, was due not only to the desire to give honor students credit for their hard work, but also to improve the scholarship of the student body. The honor students of the 1947 year were all charter members of the Society. Late in the junior year they held an election and voted Ronald Moses, president; Laura Gavrelis, vice president; and Lois Smith, secretary. According to the constitution, the treasurer had to be a member of the faculty. New members, who must be juniors and seniors, are voted in by a faculty council, are introduced every year.

The condition of their membership is that they hold their scholarship up to a high level. As a new organization began to get started, a planning committee was appointed and various activities started. Due to the efforts of the Society, five former Medford students, now studying at colleges were brought to the school to talk about difficulties encountering freshmen. An initiation of the new members has also been planned together with a formal installation of officers and a banquet to top off the season. Next year the Honor Society will be a well lubricated cog in the National machine.

Review Staff

To this year's Review staff fell the difficult task of transforming the old-style magazine into a newspaper. After several months of hard work, the journalism classes finally produced the first issue of the new Review in February, and followed this up with a second publication in April. Containing less literary material than in past years, the new-style Review featured adequate coverage of school news, as well as sports, features, articles, poetry, and stories. Editor-in-chief Nancy Kelley and Managing Editor Richard Koski headed the staff who worked under the direction of Faculty advisor Edward J. Finnegan.

Canteen Committee

The members of the Canteen Committee have had loads of fun this year preparing special programs and events for the benefit of the student body of M. H. S., who support the Canteen each Saturday night. Ed Murphy, chairman, aided by the two co-chairmen, Claire MacCarthy and Marjorie Meagher, helped to make possible the success of Canteen under the able supervision of Mr. Edwin Pidgeon, Faculty advisor. The committee proved its capabilities by the successful function of the special dances held at Christmas and Valentine's Day.

The committee consisted of:

Distributive Education Class

The Distributive Education Class of 1948 has enrolled in its membership twenty-six girls who are specializing in the field of retailing.

The Course is conducted upon a coordinated plan whereby the student attends classes daily for three hours, and then is employed for the remainder of the day in the larger departments and chain stores of Boston, Medford, Somerville, Malden, and Cambridge. This active experience on the job which is made available by the cooperation of the retail establishments, has proven most successful. The subject matter learned at school is put into practice on the job. This is an ideal method of instruction and coordination. The student is trained under expert personnel in the store and the Teacher Co-ordinator, Miss Mary Isabella McKay, follows up the activities of the class in these stores. The girls are substantially remunerated for their services while working.

The content of the course is varied and interesting, and such subjects as salesmanship, fashion, color line and design, advertising, marketing, textiles, store organization, personality development, economics of retailing, as well as English, arithmetic and display, are taught by the Teacher Co-ordinator, Miss McKay.

This year the stores cooperating with our Course in Distribution Education are:—

William Filene's & Sons Co.
Jordan Marsh Co.
Gilchrist Co.
R. H. White Co.
Conrads Inc.
Jay's Inc.
Chandlers Co.
Joslin's Co.
Parke Snow Co.
Enterprise Stores
W. T. Grant Co.
F. W. Woolworth Co.

We are indeed grateful to these companies for their support and cooperation.

The following girls will be graduated in June and will receive a special Retailing Certificate along with receiving their regular High School Diplomas.

Appreciation

MR. NOBLE —

Without your faithful guidance and assistance, Mr. Noble, the Blue and White Staff could never have accomplished the difficult task of publishing the yearbook. To you the Class of 1948 owes their deepest thanks.

MISS DAGGETT —

For your untiring cooperation and aid in collecting the biographical material for the Blue and White, Miss Daggett, the Class of 1948 wishes to express their sincere thanks.

MR. PIDGEON —

The Class of 1948 wishes to express their deep thanks for the inestimable amount of time and effort you spent in supervising and organizing the photographing of the group pictures.

MISS MacBRAYNE —

To you, Miss MacBrayne, whose constant checking on the individual photographs made our Blue and White so complete and so much more memorable, the Class of 1948 offers their profound gratitude.

Afterward

And so our years at Medford High come to a close. Remember the glorious past; challenge the promising future. May your experiences here be only the beginning of lives of happiness and accomplishment.
