

LAW COHORT

The Law Cohort is designed for students interested in exploring careers in law, elected office, and/or government. Students will develop advanced analytical reading and writing skills while gaining insight into the philosophical foundations of law, government/political connections, and the practical aspects of legal practice. Students who complete the program will receive a "Law Cohort" designation on their transcripts.

LAW COHORT ADVISOR

Mr. Glen Worthington

glen.worthington@creanlutheran.org

COHORT COURSES

FRESHMAN

- (H) Intro to Law*
- (H) Philosophy of Law*

SOPHOMORE

- (H) Legal Skills & Practice

JUNIOR

- AP English Language
- (H) Speech & Debate

SENIOR

- AP U.S. Government & Politics

Semester courses (This is the recommended course plan, but courses may be taken in an alternate order at your counselor's discretion.)*

If a student is not qualified to take the AP course, a corresponding honors or college preparatory course will suffice.*

Additionally, at least once during high school, Law Cohort students must participate in one or more of the following competitive Academic Teams:

- Mock Trial
- Model United Nations
- Speech & Debate

Students may receive a waiver of this requirement from the Vice Principal of Academics if an irreconcilable schedule conflict exists and they complete an alternate skill-development activity.

REQUIREMENTS

- Return Students: Submit Return Form by January 31
- New Applicants: Submit Application by March 15
- Cumulative weighted academic GPA of 3.00 or higher
- Complete 125 hours of internship by March of senior year
- Attend field trips and conferences
- Participate in evening lectures/labs
- Annual fee of $550

No refunds will be given after the application is submitted unless the application is not accepted.

