He conceded that this team is not a non-profit so he could meet that requirement, but he asked if an exception could be made. He concluded by adding that he appreciated any consideration the Board could give.

XIV. Hearing of Citizens

Hearing of Citizens will be restricted to three minutes per person for a total of fifteen minutes for comments on agenda items only. The Board bears no responsibility, nor will it be liable for any comments made by the public. Please be advised that all comments are maintained as a matter of public record.

NOTE (*) At the start of this section, Everyone was asked to vacate the building due to the smell of gas. The meeting reconvened on the front lawn of the High School where comments were taken.

A parent asked the Board about a West Ridge PTO event she had heard about that involved talking to the Board candidates in the upcoming Board election. She expressed concern that East Brook parents were not informed about this meeting and felt everyone should be allowed to attend and that parents have the right to know what the candidates stand for. Other parents present expressed a similar sentiment. Ms. Wagner responded that this was not a school sponsored event and that the school district could not sponsor such an event.

A resident thanked the Board for offering more electives for special needs students but asked the Board if Ms. Connolly could provide more non-academic activities for them.

A resident complained that there was only one day off this year for the Jewish Holiday. She noted that this was not in line with what the district has done in the past and other school districts in the area are doing. Ms. Wagner responded that there are a lot of factors that are taken into account when the school calendars are developed, and several different groups involved.

Ms. Turpin addressed the Board about the upcoming West Ridge PTO candidate night. She explained that the PTO wanted to run an event to allow their members to become better informed on the candidates. An effort was made to work with the East Brook PTO but there was no response. She said all candidates are invited to attend and encouraged people to find out who they are voting for.

An East Brook parent indicated that she would have liked to hear from the candidates and that she will be speaking to the East Brook PTO at their next meeting to hopefully raise more interest on the matter.

A resident asked about bringing woodshop back. She stated that since the pandemic, more people are going into the skilled professional's field. She felt it was important for the district to offer more courses like woodshop.

Another resident raised a concern about the lack of days off for the Jewish Holiday. She asked if the Board could inform parents earlier when they plan to discuss the calendar.

Ms. Wagner then thanked everyone for their input, especially given the unusual circumstances and location the meeting was held.

XV. Board Comments – New/Unfinished Business

Mr. Bradler thanked the people who stayed for the meeting. He informed them that due to a conflict with School Boards, the October 21st meeting was being cancelled and rescheduled to October 28th.
