Simply Advice's High School Tips Meeting

Underclassmen – are you in need of help understanding how to succeed in High School?

If so, come to Simply Advice's High School Tips meeting this Wednesday after school in the Media Center from 3:30 to 4:15 PM! We will go over how to guarantee your success in High School. From notetaking strategies to finding new opportunities, we will go over everything you need to do your best in High School!"

The Northview High School Swim Team will be selling Chick Fil A Biscuits as a team fundraiser tomorrow morning starting at 7:45am at the three main entrances to the high school.

The chicken biscuits will be $5 and cash/Venmo will be accepted.

Thank you for your supporting the Northview Swim Team!

A short-handed Northview Quiz Bowl Team competed at the 3rd annual Titan Takedown last weekend. Our team defeated all six opponents and ran its current winning streak to 19 straight matches! This was the third consecutive championship for the Titans!

Hurricane Relief Fundraiser

As many of you know, recent hurricanes have devastated communities, leaving people without homes, resources, or support. To help those in need, our Senior Class Council is partnering with the Red Cross to raise funds for Hurricane Helene and Milton relief efforts. Your contribution, no matter the amount, can make a meaningful difference for those affected. If you would like to donate, please scan the QR Code below. Thank you all for your support!
