BOO BASH

The Fox Chapel Area High School National Honor Society held its annual Boo Bash last Wednesday. Participants enjoyed Halloween-themed activities for children, a costume parade, sweet treats, and even a haunted egg hunt. Donations for Backpack for Hunger and the Foxes Burrow were also collected during the event.

IT'S A CHAMPIONSHIP WEEKEND FOR THE FOXES!

Best of luck to our three teams playing for their respective WPIAL titles this weekend, as well as the members of the Foxes cross country team competing in PIAA action in Hershey!

- The Foxes boys soccer team will face top-ranked Plum at 8 p.m. Friday at Highmark

Stadium in the WPIAL Class 4A championship game.

- The Foxes field hockey team will take on No. 1-ranked Peters Township for the Class 2A crown at noon Saturday at W&J's Cameron Stadium.

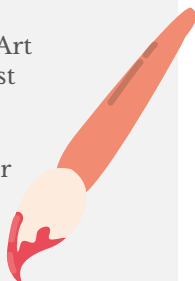

- The No. 1-ranked Foxes girls soccer team will face South

Fayette in the Class 3A title game at 3:30 p.m. Saturday at Highmark Stadium.

Best of luck to the boys cross country team, which will compete at states this weekend. Cecilia Ressler and Ella Shevchuk from the girls team also will take part in PIAA competition.
