February 14-22, 2025

15-18 Upper School Students

Cost: $5814

TRIP LEADERS: Danae Howe, Ben Gillen, Kaitlin Webster

Calling all K-pop fans and Asian culture adventurers! Are you ready for the ultimate K-pop adventure in the vibrant land of Seoul, South Korea? Join our extraordinary K-pop tour and immerse yourself in the captivating world of Korean music, culture, and entertainment. Feel the electrifying energy as you create memories that will last a lifetime. Opt into a K-pop dance class and tours of popular music video locations, including live studio recordings of popular K-pop shows.

Indulge your taste buds in the tantalizing flavors of Korean cuisine as we take you on a culinary adventure. From traditional delicacies to trendy street food, you'll discover a whole new world of flavors that will leave you craving more.

Immerse yourself in the rich history and beauty around Seoul as we explore the scenes that inspire great music. Let the vibrant culture of South Korea ignite your passion for exploration. Connect with other teens at a fellow independent school to discuss similarities and differences between teen life in Korea and teen life in Seattle.

Whether you're a die-hard fan or just starting your K-pop journey, this tour promises an unforgettable adventure filled with laughter, excitement, and newfound friendships.

Prerequisites: Priority will be given to students who have participated in the K-pop club. Must be open to taking a beginning dance class and exploring Korean food and culture. A current passport is required.

Trip Goals:

Thoughtful and relevant cultural engagement and immersion.

Consistent and meaningful reflection, with a balance of private and public reflection throughout the trip.

Opportunities to overcome self-imposed physical and emotional limitations.
