Welcome and Introductions
Learning about WWCC opportunities: Rodney Outlaw
Updates: Eva Maxwell
Updates: Pam Clayton
Student Club Updates
Announcements (Homework)
Next Meeting: Thursday, December 5

After introductions and a welcome by Dr. Perron, we engaged in an icebreaker using the stickers on the tables. Committee members and guests moved around the room, finding new folks to chat about the sticker, and how it resonates with you.

Next, Rodney Outlaw was introduced and shared about the amazing media projects and courses he is offering through the community college. Rodney was able to share the contexts of the work he is doing, and provided a history of how his programs and projects came to be. EAC members had the chance to ask questions as well.

Our EAC student leader, Eva Maxwell, shared about her work with the GATES grant, and also an article that the EAC will have for homework. This article is eye-opening, and focuses on the importance of cultivating a culture of "college-going" mindsets. EAC will have the article to read before our next meeting in December.

Pam Clayton provided updates on resources for families, and upcoming events, such as the Day of the Dead remembrance which is currently displayed at Fort Walla Walla. There is also a parade on Sunday, November 3, at 3 pm, through downtown Walla Walla, followed by a fiesta at Heritage Square Park.

EAC Student leaders from various clubs shared their experiences and what is happening at the high school.

A few members provided updates and the meeting concluded at 4:50 pm.
