

POLICY 3330 CERTIFICATION TYPES
Emerging Small Business Enterprise (E/SBE)	A certified SBE corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, or other legal entity for the purpose of making a profit, which is independently owned and operated by individuals legally residing in, or that are citizens of, the United States or its territories whose annual revenues and number of employees are no greater than twenty-five percent (25%) of the small business size standards for its industry as established by the U.S. Small Business Administration ("SBA") and meets the Significant Business Presence requirements.
Emerging Small/Minority/Women Business Enterprise (E/S/M/WBE)	A certified M/WBE firm whose annual revenues and number of employees are no greater than twenty-five percent (25%) of the small business size standards for its industry as established by the U.S. Small Business Administration and meets the Significant Business Presence requirements.
Minority Business Enterprise (MBE)	Any legal entity, except a joint venture, that is organized to engage in for-profit transactions, which is certified as being at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, managed and controlled by one or more minority group members, and that is ready, willing, and able to sell goods or services that are purchased by the SBBC. To qualify as an MBE, the enterprise annual revenues and number of employees shall be no greater than fifty percent (50%) of the small business size standards for its industry as established by the U.S. Small Business Administration and meets the significant business presence requirements. In addition, for purposes of being a certified MBE that is eligible to benefit from race- and gender-conscious APIs in this Policy, the enterprise shall meet the size standards for being "small". Unless otherwise stated, the term MBE as used in this Policy is not inclusive of women-owned business enterprises (WBE).
Minority/Women Business Enterprise (M/WBE)	A firm that is certified as either a minority business enterprise or as a women business enterprise and which is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, managed, and controlled by one or more minority group members and/or women, and that is ready, willing, and able to sell goods or services that are purchased by the School District.
