SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT – DR. MICHAEL DETURO

Dr. DeTuro introduces the following programs: Access, NJGPA, and Graduation Pathway. Mrs. Courtney Carrelha and Mr. Dominick Gliatta are called to present an in-depth overview. Mrs. Carrelha presents the ACCESS for ELLs testing; a K-12 testing on language proficiency in an academic context. Student improvement was recorded across each testing domain. Mr Gliatta presents The New Jersey Graduation Proficiency Assessment, known as NJGPA, that is administered to every junior class as a requirement to graduate. Students are given additional support between the test and graduation, if scores are inadequate, promoting overall graduation rates. The Class of 2025 has identified six students that will receive additional support. 2024 Graduation report provides insight on the confidence developed by students who are scattered across twenty-five states and two countries pursuing personal, academic and professional growth.
