

TITAN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thursday, October 31st, 2024

Vigilance [n]: the action or state of keeping careful watch for possible danger or difficulties

Please use vigilance as you participate in Halloween activities tonight.

ATHLETICS OF THE WEEK

Friday	7:30pm	Varsity Football Home vs. North Springs
Saturday	8:00am	Cross Country Meet at Starrs Mills

A short-handed Northview Quiz Bowl Team competed at the 3rd annual Titan Takedown last weekend. Our team defeated all six opponents and ran its current winning streak to 19 straight matches! This was the third consecutive championship for the Titans!

Hurricane Relief Fundraiser

As many of you know, recent hurricanes have devastated communities, leaving people without homes, resources, or support. To help those in need, our Senior Class Council is partnering with the Red Cross to raise funds for Hurricane Helene and Milton relief efforts. Your contribution, no matter the amount, can make a meaningful difference for those affected. If you would like to donate, please scan the QR Code below. Thank you all for your support!

Northview HS students – Do you want to know where you score on the SAT or ACT test?

Volunteers Needed for Findley Oaks Fine Arts Night

Findley Oaks Elementary School is looking for students who would like to volunteer at their Fine Arts Night on Friday, December 6th from 6pm- 7pm at Findley Oaks. The event consists of a framed student artwork show, free art activities, artist demonstrations, and the winter chorus concert. Student volunteers would be asked to assist our students in our art activities, help our guest artists with set up, crowd control, and take down, and helping parents find their child's framed artwork. Findley Oaks would be happy to sign off on any forms students in service clubs might need for hours.

To sign up to volunteer, students should use this link: <https://forms.office.com/r/6SX1NYapCM>
