Dear Parents,

I apologize for the late email, but what an afternoon and evening! Thank you so much for your patience today as we navigated our situation. We received an update that the gas line is still under repair, but this will only affect our kitchen. Our cafeteria ladies are prepared to make breakfast and lunch tomorrow without the stoves.

If you didn't receive communication by phone, email, and text today, it is likely we don't have your correct number. Please notify the front office so we can correct the issue.

Thank you again for your patience,

Mrs. Wilder
