Introduction

The goal of the Travis TAG Student/Parent Handbook is to create and maintain a positive school climate where every student can achieve his or her potential.

The contents of this handbook are not intended to create any contractual or legal rights and are designed solely to be used as a guide for students at William B. Travis Vanguard and Academy for the Academically Talented and Gifted in conjunction with the rules and guidelines in the Dallas ISD Code of Conduct Handbook.

This document is not a replacement of the District Student Code of Conduct but should be considered as an explanation of the higher expectations required of each student attending this magnet school.

Dallas ISD SCHOOL BOARD POLICY: ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Academic dishonesty includes cheating or copying the work of another student, plagiarism, and unauthorized communication between students during an examination. The determination that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty shall be based on the judgment of the classroom teacher or other supervising professional employee, taking into consideration written materials, observation, or information from students. Students found to have engaged in academic dishonesty shall be subject to disciplinary penalties as well as academic penalties.

What is plagiarism?

Plagiarism is using others' ideas and words without clearly acknowledging the source of the information, including chatgpt and other AI sources.

What is an example of plagiarism?

If a student cuts and pastes someone else's words from an Internet website for a report or project without crediting the source that is plagiarism.

Why is plagiarism in elementary and middle school a bad thing?

Copying or stealing someone else's ideas and claiming them as your own are dishonest. Academic dishonesty will result in removal from extracurricular activities (field trips, performances, academic competitions, UIL, clubs, student council, etc.) and National Junior Honor Society (NJHS).

How can a student avoid plagiarism?

To avoid plagiarism, a student must give credit whenever they use:

- ❑ Another person's idea, opinion, or theory

- ❑ Any pieces of information (facts, drawings, graphs) that are not common knowledge
- ❑ Quotations of another person's actual spoken or written words
- ❑ A paraphrase of another person's spoken or written words

What does the Dallas ISD Student Code of Conduct say?

The code of student conduct makes these two things major offenses:

- 1) Forgery: Imitating an original piece of writing with the intent to deceive. Falsifying records of work, assignments, or proof of accomplishments.
- 2) Cheating/Copying: To reproduce school work that is not your own from any origin with the intent to represent it as one's own.

What is the consequence of knowingly plagiarizing someone else's work?

A student will receive an automatic referral. A student will not receive credit for the assignment, resulting in a grade of zero. Academic dishonesty will result in removal from extracurricular activities (field trips, performances, academic competitions, UIL, clubs, student council, etc) and National Junior Honor Society (NJHS).

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Attendance

If a student is absent from school for ten or more days or parts of days within a six-month period in the same school year the student's parent may be prosecuted under Education Code 25.093, and the student may be prosecuted under Education Code 25.094.

Vanguard, grades 4-5, take attendance once daily by 10 a.m.

Academy, grades 6-8, take attendance each period (4 periods daily).

To excuse legitimate student absences, including days or parts of a day resulting from a nurse sending the student home, a written excuse signed by the student's parent must be given to the proper school authorities no later than three school days after the student returns to school, describing the reason for the absence [(see FEC (local).] After three (3) unexcused absences your parent/guardian will receive a warning letter from truancy and be required to attend an intervention program provided by the district. After ten (10) unexcused absences within a 6 month period in the same year, the district may file truancy court proceedings on parents/guardians and or students for violation of the Texas Compulsory Attendance Law.

Absences not eligible to be excused and absences for which a written excuse is not received within three school days shall be counted as unexcused absences.

The following reasons are considered excused absences:

- Personal illness
- Religious holiday – written notification should be submitted to the school before the day of absence.
- Medical or dental appointments
- School approved extracurricular activities (admin approved)
- Family emergencies or unforeseen or unavoidable instances requiring immediate attention
- Court appearances/citizenship proceedings
- Serious or life threatening illness

Note: Students will NOT be released after 3 pm.

Travis TAG Tardy Policy

If a Vanguard student (grades 4-5) arrives at school after 10 a.m. they are counted absent for the day. If the student arrives twenty minutes after the first bell or leaves twenty minutes before the last bell without an acceptable excuse, it will be considered an unexcused partial day.

If an Academy student (grades 6-8) arrives for ANY CLASS 10 minutes late, they will be counted absent for that class.

Cell Phones

The District prohibits the use of cell phones during the instructional day (8:35am - 3:55pm). Cell phones shall not be visible and shall remain off. Students who violate this policy will have their device confiscated.

The District is not liable for lost or stolen cell phones. All confiscated phones must be turned in to the principal's office. Once the cell phone has been confiscated, the following procedure will be used to return the device:

- The first time a cell phone is confiscated, parents/guardians will pick it up with no fee assessed.
- The second time a cell phone is confiscated, an administrative fee of $5 will be charged before the device can be returned to a parent/guardian. Parents/guardians will be notified that the student's device has been confiscated for the second time.
- If a cell phone is confiscated a third time, an administrative fee of $10 will be charged before the device can be returned to a parent/guardian.
- If a cell phone is confiscated a fourth time, an administrative fee of $15 will be charged before the device can be returned to a parent/guardian.
- Any student refusing to give the device to school personnel will be subject to disciplinary consequences.

- For safety purposes, the district permits students to possess personal telecommunication devices such as cellular phones. However, such devices shall not be visible and shall remain off during instructional time.

THIS POLICY WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED BY ALL SCHOOL PERSONNEL. All confiscated phones must be turned in to the principal's office immediately, if possible, or as soon as practicable the day the phone is confiscated.

Allowable Electronic Devices

- Wired headphones

All other electronic devices such as airpods, wireless headphones and gaming systems are prohibited during the instructional day. (8:35-3:55).

The Travis TAG Student/Parent Handbook addresses campus and classroom rules for minor offenses only. Once an offense has gone beyond the designation of “minor” and is listed as a Level I, II, or III offense, the regulations, and responses outlined in the District’s Student Code of Conduct shall apply.

Referral Appeal Process

A parent has the right to appeal a referral for minor campus or classroom offenses. Please refer to the District’s Student Code of Conduct for the appeal process relating to Level I, II, or III offenses.
