

NOVEMBER

The Pelican's Nest

Paulina Elementary School
Leader in Me School-Home Connection

Habit of the Month

Habit 3: Put First Things First means to work first, then play. Students learn to spend time on things that are most important, setting priorities, following a plan, and staying organized.

SCAN ME

Book Suggestions

Below you will find a list of books that your family can read and have discussions about Habit 3 – Put First Things First. All of these books can be viewed online or checked out at the local library.

Froggy Gets Dressed by Jonathan London

The Little Red Hen by Paul Galdone

The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle

Alejandro's Gift by Richard E. Albert

Jamaica's Find by Juanita Havill

Table Talk - Leadership Roles at Home

Talk with your child about a leadership role that he or she might be interested in at home. Discuss the expectations of the role and come up with ways he or she will handle homework or other commitments with this new responsibility.

Some examples of at-home leadership roles include:

- Gardener: watering and maintaining indoor/outdoor plants
- Technology Leader: ensuring all devices are charged and in order
- Floor Leader: ensuring the floors are clean and free of clutter
- Assistant Chef: providing support in the kitchen as needed

Mission Statement: As a PES Family, we will work together to lead, to learn, to grow - showing kindness and respect to everyone we meet. We will embrace challenges and celebrate victories.

Motto: At PES, we are creating a better world, one LEADER at a time!

Behavior Expectations:

At PES, we LEAD:

L - Lead with the 8 Habits

E - Exhibit safe behaviors

A - Act responsibly

D - Demonstrate respect