

FRESHMAN YEAR	SOPHOMORE YEAR	JUNIOR YEAR	SENIOR YEAR
Welcome Freshman Students are supported as they learn and develop positive study habits, organizational skills, and the importance of time management.	Challenge Yourself Students will continue to build their transcript by selecting appropriately challenging courses to achieve academic success.	Challenge Yourself Students will continue to build their transcript by selecting appropriately challenging courses to achieve academic success.	During the summer Visit colleges. Begin College Application and write several essay drafts. Finalize college list and prepare for application season.
Get Involved ND has many extracurricular activities for students. Clubs, sports, performing arts and service opportunities are available for all.	Remain Involved Students continue to develop interests and leadership opportunities through a commitment to extracurricular activities.	Junior Seminar Affords students the opportunity to begin their college search, prepare college applications, the SRAR, and start the essay process.	Be mindful of all deadlines Students should submit applications, request transcripts, and recommendations prior to college deadlines
Testing Students will be exposed to the Digital PSAT and PreACT to experience standardized testing and receive feedback.	Testing Students will be exposed to the Digital PSAT and PreACT to experience standardized testing and receive feedback.	Testing the Digital PSAT will be administered in October. Juniors are reviewed for National Merit Scholar Program. Register for the SAT/ACT by second semester.	Review college policies on standardized testing . Students are responsible for sending all test scores to the schools of their choice
Scoir Students will receive an introduction to this college/career program. Parents also receive account access by email invitation.	Scoir Your account continues to grow as more information, resume highlights, and interests are submitted.	Meet with Admission Representatives during Activity Period Over 100 colleges visited during the Fall.	Meet with Admission Representatives during Activity Period Over 100 colleges visit during the Fall
Individual Counseling Appointments begin in the fall to ensure a smooth transition into ND. Open door policy continues throughout the entire year.	Individual Counseling Appointments continue. Open door policy remains throughout the year.	Individual Counseling Appointments continue. Counselors meet with students and assist in all aspects of the college process.	Individual Counseling where students will discuss college choice, application process, and future plans with counselor.
College Scholarships can be researched during all four years. Some are grade level specific. If awarded, scholarship will be applied upon enrollment.	College Scholarships can be researched during all four years. Some are grade level specific. If awarded, scholarship will be applied upon enrollment.	College Scholarships can be researched during all four years. Some are grade level specific. If awarded, scholarship will be applied upon enrollment.	College Scholarships Check out the CSC portal for scholarship opportunities as well as our Senior Corner!
Individualized course selection sessions in the spring. Students begin conversations with counselor regarding their four-year plan.	Individualized course selection sessions in the spring. Students will revisit four-year plan to make course selections and plan for their future.	Individualized course selection sessions in the spring. Discuss college course recommendations when choosing senior year schedules. Request formal teacher recommendations for college applications.	Finish Strong Students worked hard in their time at ND. Let the CSC office know where you'll be attending college so final transcripts can be sent upon graduation.

Please see Calendar of Events for evening presentations for parents/students.

Counselors always available to meet student needs. Scan code below to set up an appointment with your Counselor. Please be sure you are connected to google.

