CAREER TECHNICAL TRAINING SCHOLARSHIPS

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE
NOW!

The City of Norwalk has scholarships available to assist low income residents with the cost of technical training in health sciences and medical technology or welding/ metal fabrication. The training is offered through the Norwalk-La Mirada Adult School (NLMAS) with funding provided by the Community Development Block Grant program. Applications are now available. To obtain an application, visit the City of Norwalk website at <https://www.norwalk.org/city-hall/departments/community-development/norwalk-la-mirada-adult-school-scholarships/-fsiteid-1>.

The City will pay for the cost of tuition (class fees). Depending upon the program, the amount of assistance ranges from $1,050 to $2,600. The student is responsible for the cost of books, uniforms, background checks, and/or exams. Funding for the program is limited. For more information on the training programs contact Norwalk-La Mirada Adult School at (562) 210-3990.

To qualify:

- You must be a Norwalk resident. Proof of residency is required.
- You must be 18 years of age or older.
- You must submit a completed application and essay during the City's application period.
- Your total combined household income cannot exceed the following income limits:

Number in Household	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Income Limit	$66,750	$76,250	$85,800	$95,300	$102,950	$110,550	$118,200	$125,800

Applications are open until funds are exhausted.

For more information, contact the Housing & Neighborhood Development Division at (562) 929-5951.
