To Whom it May Concern:

Since September of 2009, when I started working with Ana, I've had the pleasure of knowing both her and Greg Morales. Over the years, I've developed close professional and personal relationships with Ana, and I've come to know Greg personally as well. Their marriage is built on happiness and love, revolving around their children and family.

I've witnessed their daughter Natalie grow from her kindergarten days to the brink of her sophomore year in college. Throughout her upbringing, Ana and Greg have consistently provided Natalie with love and support, nurturing her into a bright, independent young woman. Their approach to parenting has always been affectionate yet firm, especially when it comes to discipline.

Having observed Ana's interactions with thousands of students at Nova Middle School, I've seen her unwavering support for each one. She possesses a remarkable ability to help students bridge the gap between academic studies and real-world applications.

Though I don't have children of my own, I have full confidence in Ana and Greg's ability to care for any child. Knowing their home is filled with such warmth and love, I believe any child placed in their care would be fortunate indeed.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if further information is needed.

Sincerely,

Cassandra Woehr
