

Attending Non-Public Schools in Alabama

(Act #2014-245)

Act 2014-245, SB38, amends Sections 16-1-11, 16-28-7, 16-46-1, 16-42-2, 16-46-6, 16-46-4, 16-46-5, 16-46-6, 16-46-7, 16-46-8, 16-46-9, and 16-46-10, Code of Alabama 1975, to clarify that nonpublic schools, including private, church, parochial, and religious schools, offering educational instructions in grades L-12, as well as home-schooled students, are not subject to regulation by the Department of Education, the State Board of Education, of the State Superintendent of Education and may not be regulated by the state or any political subdivision of the state. The act requires nonpublic schools to comply with attendance laws and perform criminal history background checks on employees, prohibits public two-year or four-year institutions of higher education from denying admittance to or otherwise discriminating against a qualified student based upon his or her attendance at a nonpublic school, and prohibits the State Department of Education from denying certification to a person based upon his or her employment by an elementary or secondary nonpublic school. The act also provides that all nonpublic schools that are members of the Alabama High School Athletic Association must be in compliance with the constitution and bylaws established by the association member schools.
