

Proposed Spring 2021 AM/PM Schedule

To help support the whole student through more frequent contact with teachers, peers, and school personnel, HUSD proposes to offer an AM/PM schedule TK-12 beginning January 11, 2020. This schedule allows for students to attend school a minimum of four days a week (Friday will continue to be an Intervention day for those students most in need of one-on-one or smaller group instruction).

Beyond the short term benefit of returning with an AM/PM model for January 11th, if we are unable to safely implement a full return on February 1, 2020 this AM/PM schedule will allow a continued approach to educating the whole child than other schedules considered (see attached) through:

- More in-person contact between students, teachers, and school staff on a more regular basis;
- Increased support for students who are not completing asynchronous (out of school work) lessons ;
- The AM/PM schedule is a more viable in-person option long term if we need to continue a hybrid model beyond the end of January.

Considerations:

- Child Care: The AM/PM schedule may cause some issues with child care. We are going to work to provide AM child care (through B&G Club)
- Flexibility for AM/PM: We will be moving the current "B" Group to PM schedule. With that said, as we discuss this with our parents, we will work to meet their needs for AM or a PM class. We have discussed with our teachers the possibility of unbalanced classes (more students in AM or PM) and they have indicated that as long as 6' can be maintained they are ok with that.

Other Schedules Considered:

- The District considered multiple other schedules (see attached)

Alternative Options:

- The District will offer a semester long Independent Study Program for those families who are concerned about the health of their child (see attached). This program will be parent taught (with every other week HUSD teacher check in) and students participating in this program will not be eligible for extra-curricular activities.
