‘WAX MUSEUM’ COMES TO LIFE

As part of their new social studies curriculum, O'Hara Elementary School fourth-graders held a living wax museum on Monday. The students dressed as historical and pop culture figures. The school's third-graders visited the living wax museum to hear the fourth-graders' presentations about their person. This was a project-based experience using the new myWorld curriculum.

FOXES FIRST!

Congratulations to the Fox Chapel Area boys soccer team, which captured the WPIAL Class 4A championship on Friday with a 1-0 victory over Plum at Highmark Stadium. It is the Foxes' first WPIAL title in boys soccer since 1995.

FCAHS FALL PLAY TO DEBUT THURSDAY

Fox Chapel Area High School students will perform "Harvey" for their fall play. Local director and producer Kristiann Josephs is in charge of this fall's show. Teacher Joseph Gass is serving as the technical coordinator, and teacher Mary Beth Dixon is the costume/props coordinator.

The play will be performed at 7 p.m. November 7, 8, and 9 in the FCAHS auditorium. Tickets for adults are $10 each; student tickets are $5 each. Tickets will be sold at the door.

THANK YOU VETERANS
