TPRS CTE WELDING STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Our featured student is Aliza Gonzales. Aliza is a teen mom with a dream to pursue a welding career. She is pictured here in her CTE Welding Class. Aliza is currently enrolled in a Career and Technology welding course, where she is learning different welding techniques. Aliza said, "Welding is something new and a bit difficult for me, but I love learning new things it is worth the effort." She shows incredible resilience and ambition through her determination to balance parenting and her education. Keep up the good work, Aliza.

2024 NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

MICHELLE DOMINGUEZ

TPRS FIRST SIX WEEKS CELEBRATION
TPRS had the first six weeks celebration on Wednesday, October 2, 2024. Julissa Anaya had a strong start to her senior year with her achievement of making the A honor roll. We are so proud of her for prioritizing her grades. TPRS would also like to congratulate Keevon Morrison for his AB honor roll achievement for the first six weeks. Great job you two.

ATTENDANCE

We are now in the final two cycles of the first semester. If you're missing class and want to pass or graduate, it's crucial that you start attending school regularly. Start making up your hours now! Visit your attendance clerk to get form for make-up hours, or stop by C12 for assistance.

Early Literacy Jumpstart

TPRS Early Literacy Targeted Concepts

Sensory books have multiple benefits, among them we find the following:

- Promotes the development of fine motor skills.
- Increase hand-eye coordination.
- Develop creativity.
- Encourage the development of simple and complex schemes in the brain.
- Facilitate the understanding of didactic concepts.

Campus Cookie Competition

OHS VS PHS

Who will collect the most pictures of student parents reading to their children?

- Picture must include the student, not just the child, reading one of the books given by TPRS.
- Picture can be submitted to any staff member of TPRS but forwarded to Hortencia.
- All students who have submitted prior to November 14 will be eligible for the first book gift basket drawing. Second drawing will take place on each campus BEFORE the semester ends.
