Definitions Related to Title IX ~~Sexual Harassment~~

Title IX sex-based discrimination includes discrimination on the basis of sex stereotypes, sex characteristics, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation and gender identity.[19] [26] [27]

Title IX sex-based harassment is a form of sex discrimination and means sexual harassment and other harassment on the basis of sex, including:[19]

1. Quid pro quo harassment – a district employee or other person authorized to provide a district aid, benefit or service explicitly or impliedly conditioning the provision of a district aid, benefit, or service on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.

2. Hostile environment harassment - unwelcome sex-based conduct that, based on the totality of the circumstances, is subjectively and objectively offensive and is so severe or pervasive that it limits or denies a person's ability to participate in or benefit from a district education program or activity. Determination of whether a hostile environment has been created is a fact-specific inquiry that includes consideration of factors, including but not limited to:

a. The degree to which the conduct affected the complainant's ability to access the district's education program or activity;

b. The type, frequency and duration of the conduct;

c. The complainant's and respondent's ages, roles in the district education program or activity, previous interactions and other relevant factors;

d. The location and context in which the conduct occurred; and

e. Other sex-based harassment in the district's education program or activity.

3. Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking.

a. Dating violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim and where the existence of such a relationship is determined by the following factors:[28] violence laws of the jurisdiction.[28]

c. Sexual assault means a sexual offense under state or federal law that is classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.[29]
