

NHS Halloween Reading + Crafts!

The MLS National Honor Society brought Halloween books and crafts to the elementary on October 30th. These students spent part of the afternoon reading books and creating Halloween-themed crafts. This event is part of NHS's ongoing community service efforts. The society plans on continuing these activities for all upcoming holidays.

