

Alcal Specialty Contracting, Inc. (Alcal) is a subsidiary of Pacific Coast Building Products, Inc. a family owned business since 1953. Alcal is a large specialty contractor, privately held and diversified that has operated continuously since 1971. It employs over 900 people and has branches in California, Colorado, Nevada, Arizona, Washington and Hawaii. Installed products include roofing, waterproofing, insulation, firestop, and garage doors for both commercial and residential construction. The company is signatory to the Roofers and Carpenters Union.

Our Fremont, CA location is currently accepting applications for an Estimating Intern.

This part or full time position is ideal for a current student or recent graduates interested in gaining Construction Management or Business experience.

You will learn how to read blueprints, estimating, take offs, and specialty construction.

Responsibilities will include assisting with Estimating duties including but not limited to:

- Research various sources for potential projects for bidding
- Prepare and submitting bids
- Correspond with General Contractors as necessary to complete projects
- Visit job sites and consults with Superintendents

Qualified applicants please sent resumes to careers@alcal.com

We are committed to promoting diversity and welcome applications from all qualified individuals. We utilize E-Verify to confirm work authorization with both the Social Security Administration and the Department of Homeland Security. Drug free workplace and EOE/M/F/Vets/Disability

www.alcal.com