Job Description

Our Supply Chain team is committed to providing excellent service to our customers by accurately and efficiently processing orders, returns, and providing shipments to the store. Strong clear communication skills and the ability to remain flexible throughout the workday is a must.

A day in the life...

- Support the business by ensuring inventory and orders are accurately audited, processed, assembled, efficiently packed and shipped
- Comply with job rotation and work where designated with the department and building
- Material handling – repetitive bending, reaching, standing, walking and lifting 50lb boxes
- Complete receiving and/or shipping documentation, as required
- Utilize best practices following standard operating procedures and reference aids, continuously looking for areas of improvement and communicating suggestions to leadership as appropriate
- Research and resolve issues using appropriate resources

You own this if you have...

- The ability to repetitively bend, reach, stand, walk and lift 50lb boxes without difficulty
- The ability to work independently as well as collaboratively
- A commitment to teamwork through relationship building, reliability and collaboration
- The ability to drive productivity through the efficient use of time and a commitment to strong results
- Excellent attendance and punctuality
