

Case and Crate Builder - Full time, Newark, CA

Compensation: $17-$20 / hour depending on experience, plus benefits

HQ Pack - California is looking for reliable, motivated team members to join our growing company. Our woodworkers build crates and cases from blueprints using power saws, power drills and hammers. We're looking for crew members who:

- Can build from blueprints and take pride in their building quality
- Are quick learners who manage time and priorities independently but work as part of a team.
- Can follow directions and work efficiently in a safe manner

Qualifications: Previous wood crafting experience, hands on experience in assembly of wood-based products. Demonstrated ability to build from blueprints, experience with power tools such as drills and saws. Must be able to work independently and productively with minimum supervision.

HQ Pack offers competitive salaries, health benefits, paid vacation, holidays, and sick time. Our friendly company culture and work-life balance makes HQ Pack a great place to work.
