

Automotive Service Technician

What You'll Do

- Perform oil changes and lubrication services to automobiles
- Perform tire repairs and installation services to automobiles
- Perform any other minor repairs to automobiles as assigned by a Lead Tech or service writer, according to his/her abilities
- Gain on the job experience in all areas of automotive repair and strive to obtain ASE Certifications.
- Transporting members in company van to work or home
- Picking up parts as needed
- Assist upper level technicians as needed and for experience
- Keep his/her work area clean and safe
- Various miscellaneous duties as assigned by Lead Tech or management

What You Have

- Automotive Repair Knowledge – Minimum 1 year automotive tire, lube, or general repair experience or six months of auto trade school or other formalized training program.
- Must be able to understand and meet customers' needs and expectations.
- Must use good interpersonal skills in solving customers' problems and build positive relationships with them.
- Must be able to communicate with others in a clear, understandable manner.
- Must be able to analyze information, identify alternatives, and make sound, logical decisions. Must maximize utilization of available resources.
- Must be able to build smooth, cooperative working relationships, assisting other team members when possible.
- Must be able to perform multiple tasks and use time efficiently. Must be able to deal with negative emotions from others, displaying a positive, caring attitude on each interaction.
- Must be able to adapt to change and be flexible in adjusting approach to meet the needs of different situations. Must be able to rotate among job functions as needed.

What You've Done

- High School Diploma or GED required.
- Minimum 1 year automotive tire, lube, or general repair experience or six months of auto trade school or other formalized training program.
- Must obtain ASE G1 certification within 6 months of hire