

HISTORY

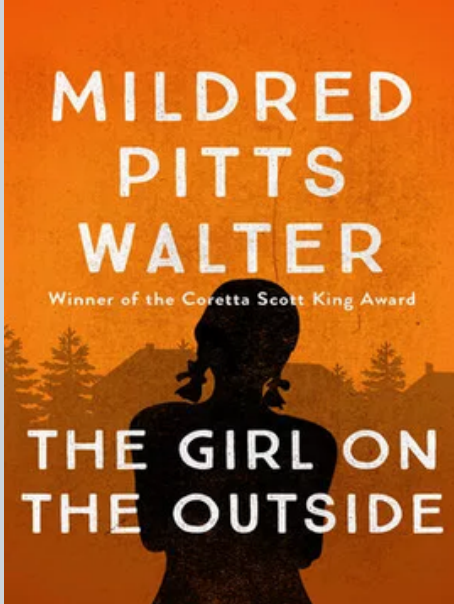

Letters to the Lighthouse, Emma Carroll - A poignant tale of friendship and resilience set during World War II, where two sisters exchange letters that reveal their hopes and fears amidst the chaos of war

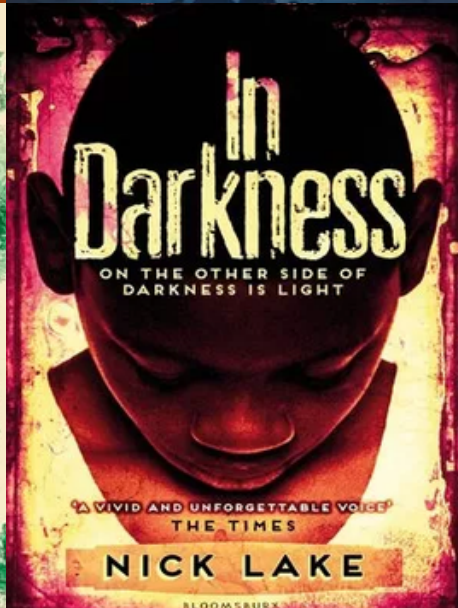

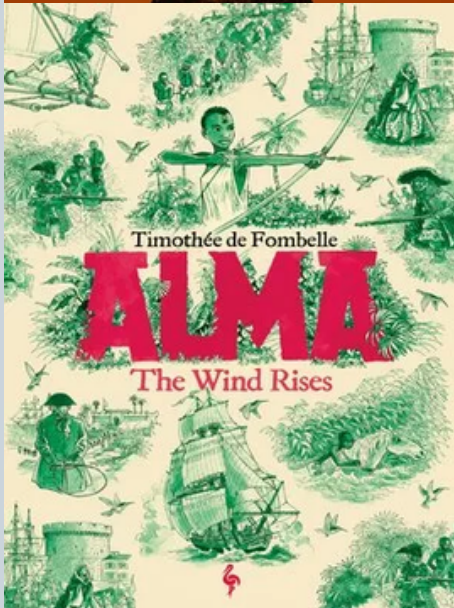

Angle of Grasmere, Tom Palmer - An evocative story that intertwines history and nature, as a boy learns to navigate grief and connection through a journey to the picturesque Lake District.

This Rebel Heart, Katherine Locke - A gripping historical narrative that follows a Jewish girl in World War II-era Hungary as she navigates love, resistance, and the fight for freedom.

Until the Road Ends, Phil Earle - A heartfelt exploration of friendship and self-discovery as two boys embark on a transformative journey across England, facing challenges and uncovering truths along the way.

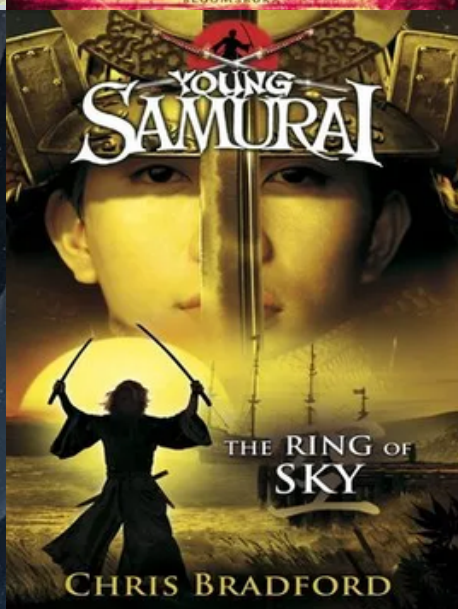

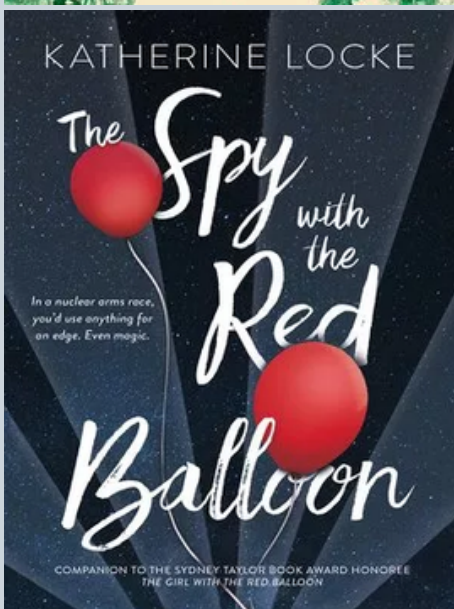

The Girl on the Outside, Mildred Pitts Walter - A powerful story of identity and belonging as a biracial girl grapples with her place in a divided community and learns to embrace her uniqueness.

Resistance, Jennifer Nielsen - A thrilling tale of courage and sacrifice as a young girl becomes a key player in the French Resistance during World War II, risking everything to fight against oppression.

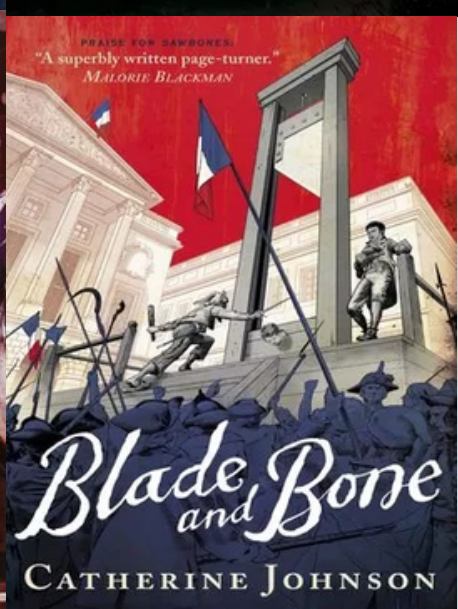

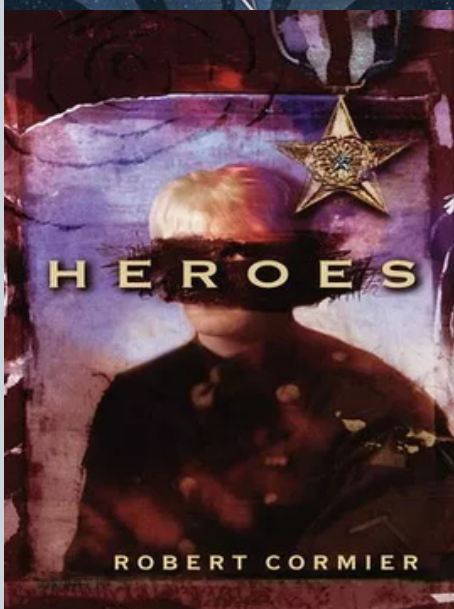

Alma, Timothée de Fombelle - A lyrical journey of adventure and self-discovery as a girl named Alma uncovers her family's past and the magic hidden within her world.

In Darkness, Nick Lake - A gripping narrative that weaves together the experiences of a boy trapped in the rubble of a Haitian earthquake and the historical figure of Toussaint Louverture, exploring themes of survival and hope.

Spy with the Red Balloon, Katherine Locke - A thrilling espionage tale set during World War II, where a young girl becomes entangled in a secret mission involving danger, loyalty, and the power of imagination.

Young Samurai, Chris Bradford - An exhilarating adventure follows a young English boy who trains to become a samurai in Japan, navigating challenges of culture, honor, and friendship.

Heroes, Robert Cormier - A poignant exploration of bravery and sacrifice as a Vietnam War veteran confronts the legacy of his past and the complexities of heroism through the eyes of a young boy.

Blade to Bone, Catherine Johnson - A gripping historical novel set in 18th-century England, where a young protagonist uncovers a conspiracy that threatens his life and the lives of those around him.

