

BRITISH LITERARY AWARD THAT ANNUALLY RECOGNISES ONE OUTSTANDING NEW ENGLISH-LANGUAGE BOOK FOR CHILDREN OR YOUNG ADULTS

- Away With Words by Sophie Cameron - A lyrical exploration of language and connection, as a girl grapples with her identity and the power of words in a world of silence.
- Choose Love by Nicola Davies - A heartwarming tale about the impact of kindness and love, where young characters navigate challenges and discover the strength of compassion.
- Safiyyah's War by Hiba Noor Khan - A gripping story of a young girl in a war-torn country who must find her courage and resilience while fighting for her family and community.
- Steady for This by Nathanael Lessore - A poignant narrative that follows a young athlete facing personal and competitive challenges as he strives to overcome obstacles and find his path.
- The Boy Lost in the Maze by Joseph Coelho - A captivating adventure about a boy who embarks on a journey through a mystical maze, seeking his way home while confronting fears and self-discovery.
- Crossing the Line by Tia Fisher - A thrilling tale of friendship and rivalry as a group of teens navigates the complexities of growing up and the choices that define them.
- The Door of No Return by Kwame Alexander - A powerful story that delves into themes of identity and heritage as a young boy embarks on a journey that changes his life forever.
- The Song Walker by Zillah Bethell - A magical tale where music and adventure intertwine as a young girl sets out to uncover the secrets of her family's musical legacy.

