

DOUGLAS COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Dr. Cheryl Mayfield - Executive Director of Inclusive Education

Minden, Nevada - Douglas County School District is proud to announce the appointment of Dr. Cheryl Mayfield as the new Executive Director of Inclusive Education. Having served as the Assistant Director of Inclusive Education for the past two years, Dr. Mayfield has demonstrated a strong commitment to fostering supportive and inclusive learning environments for DCSD students, families, and staff.

Dr. Mayfield has gained an in-depth understanding of the unique needs of each school within the district. Her leadership has ensured continuity and high-quality support across all sites, working closely with the department's Secretary and Compliance Specialist to provide students, parents, and educators with the resources and guidance needed for success.

Dr. Mayfield holds a Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership and a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction, both from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. She brings over 25 years of experience in special education and leadership. Her previous roles as a Special Education Instructional Coordinator, Behavior Interventionist, and Case Manager have equipped her with a unique blend of instructional, administrative, and behavioral expertise.

In her new role, Dr. Mayfield will continue her mission to advance inclusive education in the district, supporting professional development for educators and addressing the diverse needs of DCSD students. "It has been an honor and a pleasure to support DCSD's schools, and I look forward to leading the Inclusive Education Department in its next chapter," shared Dr. Mayfield.

Please join us in welcoming Dr. Mayfield to this new role and in supporting her as she continues to champion inclusive education across our district. For more information, please contact Hailey Sebahar, Director of Marketing & Communications, at hsebahar@dcsd.k12.nv.us.
