

LINES OF COMMUNICATION

At EAB, we place a high value on effective communication between parents and school staff. We recognize that a positive flow of information between home and school benefits everyone involved. To assist parents in navigating their queries or concerns, we've provided the following guidelines on who to contact at EAB.

ISSUE, QUERY OR CONCERN

- My child's academic progress
- My child's assessments or grades
- My child does not understand something

EAB PERSONNEL

- The child's teacher
(If a parent is not satisfied with their initial communication with a teacher they should approach the appropriate principal)

- My child is new to EAB and needs help transitioning
- My child is having problems with friendships
- My child is being teased
- My child is worried or anxious
- Our family is having problems that may be affecting my child
- My child does not want to come to school
- I am concerned about my child's placement in a class
- My child needs support with career planning (HS)
