 - the state's student academic achievement standards,
 - the state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments,
 - the requirements of Part A,
 - how to monitor their child's progress, and
 - how to work with educators:
9. List of activities, such as workshops, conferences, classes, both in-state and out-of-state, including any equipment or other materials that are necessary to ensure success.
 - a. The school will have a parent meeting to discuss Title I, what it is and how it will serve the students of Buckeye High School. Parents will be given information on how to work with educators at this meeting.
 - b. Information will be shared with parents on ways to monitor their child's progress during the academic school year.
10. BHS will provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's academic achievement, such as literacy training and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement, by:
 - a. FAFSA nights
 - b. Parent Nights
 - c. Title I Meetings
 - d. Links to material provided by state/district
11. BHS will, with the assistance of its parents, educate its teachers, pupil services personnel, principals and other staff in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools, by:
 - a. Parent survey feedback used to modify as necessary
 - b. Written communication including memos, informational handouts, social media posts

12. BHS will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities with Head Start, Reading First, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, and other programs. The school will also conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children, by:
