Terms of reference

The Remuneration and HR Committee is a committee of the University of Brighton Academies Trust's Board of Trustees. All areas of responsibility are delegated to the committee as detailed in the trust's Scheme of Delegation. The key responsibilities of the Remuneration and HR Committee are:

Overall strategy

1. To ensure that the implementation of the trust's vision, values and mission is underpinned by sound HR and recruitment strategy
2. To develop and monitor the HR and recruitment strategy of the trust ensuring that it is designed to attract and retain high caliber staff and recommend approval to the Board of Trustees
3. To establish and approve remuneration, HR and related policies in order to ensure that sound procedure is in place meeting all statutory requirements

Remuneration

4. To approve the senior staff (principal, vice-principal and assistant principal) pay ranges in each academy
5. To monitor staff pay across the trust

Human Resources

6. To monitor effective arrangements for staff consultation and negotiation with Trade Unions
7. To monitor and evaluate all matters relating to the recruitment, reward, retention and development of the trust's staff, both for their benefit and for the benefit of pupils
8. To ensure that effective measures are in place to promote equality, diversity and inclusion in employment by monitoring the diversity of applicants and appointments.
9. To consider, approve and monitor the impact of the Professional Review Scheme.

Accountability

10. To ensure appropriate communication and reporting links with the Board of Trustees, its Committees and Panels, and the trust's Executive Team and Professional Services; escalating risk and making recommendations about any remuneration and HR matters considered by them

11. To establish such short-term working groups as the Committee considers appropriate to enable it to fulfil its responsibilities
12. To undertake any other specific duties and advise on such matters requested by the Board of Trustees or Chief Executive
13. To have due regard within its decisions to the need to eliminate unlawful discrimination, advance equality of opportunity, promote diversity and inclusion and foster good relations between different people, in accordance with the public sector general duty of the Equality Act (2010)
