NEWS FROM CAMPUS

AP PRESENTATIONS in Mrs. Lohfink's Language & Literature

Seniors Carter Ory & Bryleigh Sutherland were the first members of Mrs. Lohfink's AP English Literature and Composition class to complete the Student Teaching Poetry assignment when they presented a bellringer, lecture, analysis, and guided questions on unique high-level poems assigned by Mrs. Lohfink. Dr. Chauvin even joined the class to explore the glories of poetry.

Carter Ory presented Robert Frost's sonnet "Unharvested" last Thursday, and Senior Bryleigh Sutherland taught today, having her students create a mind map before lecturing on Christine Gosnay's "Apology." Both of these seniors provided a great start to this annual APLit assignment, and five more seniors will have their chance to lead the class in the upcoming weeks.
