5th Annual Buckeye Virtual Art Show: You're invited to the Fifth Annual Buckeye Education Foundation Virtual Art Show! The Buckeye Education Foundation (BEF) is proud to bring you our Fifth Annual Virtual Art Show! All students in the Buckeye Union School District are invited to participate. To celebrate the season of thanks and gratitude, students can share their art with the theme: "What I'm Grateful For" with the Buckeye community. Students in grades TK through 8th can use any medium they like to create a piece of art to include in the BEF virtual art show. It's free, and students can submit more than one art piece if they want. Every artist will have their work featured in our virtual art gallery, and every artist will receive a certificate of participation. Submit a photo of your student-created art by Thursday, November 30, 2024.
