ANNUAL FUND LEADERSHIP LEVELS

All gifts to the Annual Fund enrich the Fountain Valley School experience for every student, every teacher, every day. Your support covers immediate needs that funding from other sources, including tuition revenue and endowment earnings, are not always sufficient to meet. Every gift matters. All gifts, regardless of the size, play an important role in helping Fountain Valley School deliver on our promise to provide a transformative education for students.

GREAT DANES

Great Danes are those alumni, current and past parents, friends, and current and former faculty who have supported Fountain Valley School for at least 10 consecutive years. Many have supported much longer than a decade. This is our opportunity to say thank you to our stalwarts and loyalists.

ENDOWMENT GIVING

Thank you to our community for supporting Fountain Valley School with gifts to our endowment. Endowment donors in the 2023/2024 fiscal year are recognized below.

CAMPUS MAINTENANCE

Class of 1969 Mountain Campus Endowment*

In honor of the Class of 1969’s 50th reunion year, many lifelong friends and dedicated alumni from the class joined to endow one of the School’s most important assets, the Mountain Campus in Nathrop, Colo. Through this gift, the School is able to ensure that this facility remains a keystone of its academic and extracurricular program.

Phelps ’69 and Ann Anderson
Griff ’69 and Kimberly Davidson
Dan ’69 and Van Ha Citron

The Bacon Family Endowment, The Cabot Fund and The William and Ethel Elliott Memorial Foundation Fund have been combined into the Class of 1969 Mountain Campus Endowment.*

The Edward E. Ford Foundation Endowment

Provides annual support of the Mountain Campus.

The Frautschi Endowments

Established by W. Jerome Frautschi ’49 to support annual maintenance of the Campus Center and Howe house, and income for faculty salaries.

The John Gale ’71 Memorial Endowment Fund for Campus Beautification

Established in 2006 in memory of John Gale ’71 by his classmates, family and friends. Annual income supports campus preservation and beautification.

Jeff ’71 and Carol Berns

The Henderson Facilities Maintenance Endowment

Established in 2001 by Robert E. Henderson ’44, father of Charles ’72, to support plant maintenance.

The Plant Maintenance Trust

Supports campus maintenance.

The Street Playground Endowment

Established by David Street ’61 in 2000 to maintain the faculty children’s playground.

The Timolat Endowment

Created by Paul S. Timolat ’65 to provide funds for maintenance of the physical plant.

The Hunter and Lynn Frost Fund

Established in their memory, dedicated to the building of a future performing arts center.

FACULTY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT/CONTINUING EDUCATION/AWARDS

The Ballantine Family Endowment

Created by Arthur and Morley Ballantine P ’64, ’68, GP ’05, ’05, and continued by their sons Richard ’64 and William ’68. Provides annual grants for faculty study and research.

The Robert D. Cole Endowment for Faculty Development

Established by the family of the late Robert D. Cole, who was a Trustee and parent of David Cole ’86. Through their funding of faculty travel, the Cole family seeks to enrich experiences that faculty can bring to the classroom.

Birches Foundation

The Gates/FVS Teacher Education Fund

Created by the Gates Family Foundation of Denver. Provides annual funding of faculty research and independent study.

The J. Philo Nelson Endowment

Established by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bedford, parents to Erik ’89 and grandparents of Owen ’16, in honor of Mrs. Bedford’s father. Annual income is used to provide an award for outstanding teaching to a member of the FVS faculty as selected by the head of school.

FACULTY SUPPORT

The F. Martin Brown Fund for the Teaching of Science

Honors one of Fountain Valley School’s founding faculty members who served with distinction from 1930 through 1973. Income from the fund provides annual support of teaching salaries in the sciences. The fund was established in 1992 by a gift from Esther and Morgan Sinclair ’35.

The Lane Faculty Family Endowment

Established by Nelson and Neecee Lane, parents of Phelps ’98 and Tennessee ’00, to support the educational fund for children of Fountain Valley School faculty.

The Lewis Perry Endowment

Established by numerous friends of Fountain Valley’s third headmaster. Annual income is used to support the humanities and endows a teaching chair for a member of the humanities faculty selected by the head of school.

OPERATIONS

The Armour Family Fund

Established by Mr. and Mrs. A. Watson Armour, parents of Jean '94 and Molly '99. Annual earnings support the School's arts program.

The Faculty Fund

Supports the School's operations.

The General Trust

Supports the School's operations.

PROGRAMS

The Gardner Lynch Gordon Carney Restricted Endowment Fund

Established by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Carney II in memory of their son, Gardner '92. The fund supports the Gardner Carney Leadership Institute at Fountain Valley School, which provides training, research and literature on the pedagogy of leadership. The Institute's annual Leadership Lab takes place each summer at Fountain Valley School, and many FVS faculty have participated in this training.

Brian Scott Chandler '95 Memorial Fund

Established by Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Chandler '65, and his brother, Bob Chandler '88, to support the performing arts and other programs.

The Creeden Endowment Fund for Experiential Learning

Honors Fountain Valley's sixth headmaster, Dr. Jack Creeden, and his wife, Dr. Carole Martin P '03, '06. Income supports students who need assistance to take part in the Interim program.

The Deck Cheney Endowment

Established in 2007 to sustain the excellence of the riding program in perpetuity. Named in tribute to the legendary riding master who served from 1944 to 1975, the fund's income supports the riding program, facilities, and equipment.

The Dominique Dunne Memorial Fund

Supports Fountain Valley School's annual film competition. It was established by family and friends of Dominique Dunne '77.

The John W. Emery '44 Music Endowment Fund

Established by Jean Jackson Emery in honor of her late husband and the father of John W. "Jake" Emery Jr. '71, in recognition of his lifelong appreciation of music. Annual income supports the promotion of creativity in the School's Music Department and benefits one or more students in music.

Jake Emery '71 and Lisa Davis-Emery

Henry B. Poor Endowment Fund

Created to honor the commitment of Headmaster Poor in supporting students of diversity, spirituality and character in order that they have the opportunity to experience a unique, college preparatory education at Fountain Valley School. This endowment contributes to the financing of qualified students' tuition and other expenses incurred at FVS that are not covered by existing programs.

Cormac O'Malley '61

Tom Poor '61 and Jessie Chai

Pam Terry Power '83 and David Power

The Charles Kurchinski Annual Music Competition Endowment Fund

Established by Michael Dively to sponsor a student music competition that awards cash prizes to the top three musicians in the vocal and instrumental categories.

The Lane Horse Program Endowment

Established by Nelson and Neecee Lane P '98, '00 in support of the School's riding program.

The Nicholas McCumber '71 Visiting Artist Program Endowment

Supports the Artist-In-Residence Program.

The Round Square Endowment

Established in 2016 by former Trustee Jim and Valerie Webster, parents of Danny '14. The endowment supports the Round Square program at Fountain Valley School. Income from the fund underwrites the operating expenses of the program and supports the cost of educational exchanges at independent schools across the world.

The Rumbough Music Fund

Given by Stanley M. Rumbough Jr. in memory of his son, David '68, supporting the general activities of the Music Department.

The Frederick von Stade '42 Music Endowment

Created in 2007 by Frederick's four daughters in celebration of his 85th birthday, income from the fund provides support for the music program.

ENDOWMENT GIVING CONTINUED

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Bancroft Scholarship Endowment

Funded by Christopher Bancroft '69 to provide annual scholarship awards for deserving students.

Coach Kardok Scholarship Fund

Donald "Coach" Kardok P '73, '75, '77 arrived as a faculty member in the fall of 1969 and from then on made Fountain Valley School his home. The Kardok Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 with an initial leadership gift from an alumnus/former trustee along with matched funds from the School's endowment to ensure that FVS is within reach for bright and dedicated students who desire to expand their intellectual horizons.

Elizabeth Sage Hare Trustee Scholarship Endowment

Established by current and former trustees, the scholarship provides a Fountain Valley School education to a qualified and deserving student who demonstrates need. The intent is to transform the recipient's life through the FVS experience. This scholarship honors the extraordinary vision of the School's founder, Elizabeth Sage Hare, who was determined to establish a great progressive school in the West.

General Scholarships Endowment

Learning Center Scholarship Endowment Fund

The Learning Center Scholarship Endowment Fund was established by an FVS parent to support deserving students who benefit from the Learning Center at Fountain Valley School. This scholarship provides opportunities for qualified students to receive study assistance, learning and academic assessment, individualized academic support, tutoring and educational skill development.

The Jane and Charles F. Emery '38 Scholarship Endowment

Established by Jane and Chuck Emery, the fund provides financial support to a student who could not otherwise attend Fountain Valley School.
Jake Emery '71 and Lisa Davis-Emery

The Scott Family Scholarship

Established by Mr. and Mrs. James R. Scott '68, parents of James '95, Courtney '99 and Dana '05, to provide scholarship opportunities for Native American students on the Crow and Northern Cheyenne Indian Reservations in Montana, and Native American students who are residents of Montana or the Sheridan, Wyo. area. The goal of the scholarship is to strengthen ties between Fountain Valley School and the Native American communities whose children would benefit from the transformative education that Fountain Valley provides.

The Sinclair Endowment

Established by Reginald Sinclair, father of Morgan '35, income from the fund provides support for master teachers and for students of exceptional promise who require financial aid to attend FVS.

The Henderson Scholarship Endowment Fund

Established by Robert E. Henderson '44 to provide annual scholarship income.

The Joseph B. Holloway '70 Memorial Scholarship Fund

Established by his friends from the proceeds of a 2000 benefit performance of George Gershwin's "American Rhapsody" at the Triad Theatre in New York City.
