Return Receipt

A return receipt provides the sender a postcard or electronic notification, via fax or email, with the date of delivery and recipient's signature. A return receipt may be requested at the time of mailing. When requested at the time of mailing, it also provides the recipient's actual delivery address if different from the address used by the sender. Customers purchasing a return receipt may choose to receive it by mail or electronically. An electronic return receipt is available at most Post Offices, but is not available when a mail piece is sent to APO/FPO and DPO addresses or U.S. territories, possessions, and freely associated states. Return receipts are available for Express Mail (by mail only), First-Class Mail, Priority Mail, Parcel Post, or Media Mail when purchased with one of the following: Certified Mail, COD, mail insured for more than $200, and Registered Mail.

When purchased with one of the items above, return receipts may be combined with: Delivery Confirmation, restricted delivery, or Signature Confirmation.
