A Banner Fall for Madeira Athletics and Band

The 2024 – 2025 Madeira High School fall varsity athletic season was one for the record books – full of individual student-athlete and coach honors, new school records, multi-sport tournament action, and a state championship title.

The girls' soccer team had a stellar season, advancing from co-winning the Cincinnati Hills League (CHL), District, and Regional championships for the right to compete in the 2024 OHSAA Division V state championship game. At state, the Amazons were victorious 3-0 over Doylestown Chippewa, finishing their season with a state title and an impressive overall record of 20-1-2. Senior Anna Cornejo set school records for career goals and career assists, and Coach Dan Brady was named CHL Co-Coach of the Year. Eight team members won league and state honors.

Mustang varsity soccer was victorious in the OHSAA Division IV District and Regional championship games, advancing to their second state Final Four appearance in four years. The boys ultimately lost a tough match to Worthington Christian in the state semifinals, completing their season with a 14-9 overall record. Six team members won league and state honors.

The Amazon Cross Country team was CHL Champions for the fourth year, District runner-ups, and Regional Champions, which qualified them to advance to the state competition. The girls came in sixth in the OHSAA state tournament, with five runners receiving league and state honors. Coach Josh Dooley was named CHL Coach of the Year.

Mustang Football

Members of the Mustang Varsity Football team set an outstanding number of career and school records. Senior Aidan Hopewell set Madeira career records in catches and yards, and Madeira single season records for catches, yards, and touchdowns. Colin Miranda eclipsed the 100 career reception mark, and junior Braeden Wallace set single season Madeira records for completions, attempts, and yards. Robby Lewis had the most assisted tackles in a season and career (records date to 2010). The team made the OHSAA playoffs for the seventh consecutive season and this year made it to the second round. Ten members of the team received league awards and the team finished with a 6-6 record.

The Amazon varsity golf team placed first in the CHL, second at Sectionals, and second at the District tournament with a team score of 356. Their performance qualified them for the OHSAA Division III state tournament, making them the first girls' team in Madeira City School District's history to compete at state. They finished second in Ohio with a season record of 11-1. Catie Kauffman was named CHL and Southwest Ohio Coach of the Year and five girls received league, district, and state awards including Brinkley Graves who had her personal best.

The girls' Volleyball team won the Madeira Invitational and competed in the second round of OHSAA postseason, finishing with a 17-7 record. Four Amazons received league and district recognition, and John Berling was awarded the OHSVCA District 16 Coaching Achievement Award. The Madeira Middle School 7th and 8th grade team also won their CHL Championship games.

Amazon Golf

Mustang Golf finished their season with a 7-6 record and third place in the CHL with three golfers receiving league honors. The boys' varsity Cross Country team finished third in the CHL, fifth at Districts, and 11th at Regionals with three runners receiving league honors. The Madeira Middle School team also finished as CHL Champions. Amazon Tennis and Cheer also had great seasons.

The Marching Mustangs competed at several invitational, receiving awards for Best Percussion, Best Soloist (Wes Nelson, Trombone), First Place Band Class B, and First Place Auxiliary Class B. A Superior rating qualified them to perform at the OMEA State Marching Band Finals, where they received a Superior rating.

Interscholastic athletics at Madeira City Schools is an extension of the classroom, promoting the Madeira Culture Playbook with a focus on developing student's leadership skills and behaviors. Academic records are kept for each sports team during their season. For the Fall 2024-2025 season, the Amazon Cross Country team had the highest team GPA (4.23) followed by the Amazon Golf and Mustang Cross Country teams.
