ChildSafeguarding.com

www.childsafeguarding.com | info@childsafeguarding.com

ChildSafeguarding.com offers online Child Protection training to support staff in schools, such as cleaners, bus drivers, security guards, etc worldwide. The content is universally accessible through our bespoke platform and instructional design. The course is available in over 20 languages and is currently used across 5 continents. Unlike other Safeguarding trainings that are intended for teachers and leaders, ChildSafeguarding.com is designed for support staff, enrichment providers, and volunteers. ChildSafeguarding.com utilizes a bespoke learning platform that simplifies eLearning to ensure that all learners, regardless of their technical or educational background, can access the course. The instructional design focuses on conceptual learning and vocabulary to build understanding that is appropriate for such a diverse learner population. The course is available in over 20 languages (with more to come) to ensure that the language of instruction best fits the learner's needs regardless of his or her geographic or nation of origin. The administration of ChildSafeguarding.com has been designed to be streamlined, with easy set-up, language selection, and distribution of courses. The management of learners allows for easy supervision of progress, access to completion certificates in any language, and simple user management. ChildSafeguarding.com's unique approach to instructional design and eLearning along with its menu of languages ensures that all adults working or volunteering in a school are Child Safe. This mitigates risk for the school or school vendor, creates a better learning environment for children, builds a community commitment to Safeguarding, and makes the school an unattractive target to potential abusers. The first ChildSafeguarding.com certificate was issued in August, 2020. Since that time, ChildSafeguarding.com has added over 160 customers in more 20 countries across 5 continents. Over 10,000 people have successfully completed ChildSafeguarding.com.

The Safeguarding Alliance

www.thesafeguardingalliance.org.uk | rebecca@thesafeguardingalliance.org

The Safeguarding Alliance are the only safeguarding specialist company based in the MENA region.

A MULTI-SKILLED ALLIANCE:

The safeguarding risks and issues are changing all the time, so there are no safeguarding experts. Instead, there are specialists who have a singular focus on safeguarding, bringing a unique set of skills and understanding to every organisation and situation. That is how we operate at The Safeguarding Alliance. We bring together a range of professionals from a diverse range of sectors, all of whom are passionate about safeguarding and have many years of experience in the field. We work with some of the world's most high-profile organisations and are internationally renowned for our work helping to shape safeguarding practice.

AN INTERNATIONAL APPROACH:

Our Alliance consists of organisations from around the world who share a mutual passion and drive to put an end to safeguarding failings. We work with governments and organisations across the world, and act on an international level to encourage global standards and practices. We research, develop and promote policy and deliver education and training, all with the aim of driving forward safeguarding excellence.

Safeguarding will only work, if we work together.

Ann Marie Christian

Ann Marie is a child protection social worker, qualified in 1996, and has excelled in social work management since 2002. She has worked in several local authority roles, including children's services, based in a secondary school, early years, school improvement team, Local Authority Designated Officer, and youth justice.

In 2008, she was headhunted to deliver child protection training in the UAE and has worked internationally ever since. In 2016, she became a CIS-affiliated safeguarding consultant. In this role, she supports international schools with safeguarding consultancy and training pre- and post-inspection and has worked across various locations globally, including North & Central America, UAE, Europe, Africa, and Southeast Asia. In 2020, she became a BSME safeguarding trainer and consultant and contributed to an online conference, and is still delivering the online accredited Designated Safeguarding Lead training.

She has supported international government departments, universities, and UK-based schools in strengthening safeguarding policy, procedures, and practice by consulting and training stakeholders. She contributed to a post-graduate safeguarding qualification and developed school social work practices at two universities in the UAE. Ann Marie has delivered workshops and keynotes at various international safeguarding conferences including the Caribbean, Southeast Asia, the UK, and the USA. Ann Marie's online safeguarding courses have not just been successful, they have been a hit. Her courses, designed for the Educare part of TES and the Key for Leaders, have been well-received. She created a bespoke international course with Educare, 'The role of the DSL' in international schools. Ann Marie is not just a professional; she is an international Guru in safeguarding. Her work has not only been successful but has also earned her a reputation for outstanding knowledge and expertise. This recognition has made her a trusted figure in the industry.
