Rowlett High School Dress Code

Updated for the 2024-2025 School Year*

To prepare students for a working environment with minimal distractions, students must comply with the dress and grooming code the moment they enter the campus.

Tops	• Tops must fully cover the stomach and back— No visible torso/midriff. • No low-cut tops; no cleavage displayed. • No spaghetti straps, halter tops, or racer-back shirts. • Off-the-shoulder tops are NOT allowed. • Tank tops must have a 2-inch-wide strap (the width of an ID) • See-through tops are NOT allowed. • If leggings/yoga pants/tights are worn, the shirt hem must fully cover the buttocks and front. • No bodysuits may be worn. • Sweatshirts, hoodies, jackets, coats, or other outer garments cannot cover inappropriate attire.
Bottoms	• All bottoms may not be shorter than one ID length (3 inches) above the knee, in front and back. • No rips or tears higher than one ID length (3 inches) above the knee, in front and back. • Undergarments should NOT be visible. • No bodysuits may be worn. • See-through pants including but not limited to mesh/sheer/lace shorter than one ID length (3 inches) above the knee are not permitted. • If leggings/yoga pants/tights are worn, the shirt hem must fully cover the buttocks and front.
Hats/ Sunglasses	• Hats and caps are not permitted except on Fridays and announced spirit days. • Hoodies are permitted as clothing, but hoods may NOT be worn on the head. • Sunglasses are not allowed to be worn in the building.

Student ID	- No student is allowed in the building at any time unless they are wearing an ID on a lanyard around their neck or clipped to their clothing. IDs must be visible at all times. (May NOT be attached to a backpack or bag) - The first student ID will be provided at no charge. Replacement IDs are $3.00, Lanyards are $2.00 If a student needs both, they will be charged $5.00. A $2.00-$5.00 charge will be entered into Skyward. They will be placed on the LOP (loss of privilege) list until it is paid. They can pay as soon as the next day in the Business Office.
General	- Nighttime/bedtime attire or items, such as pajama tops or bottoms, robes, pillows, blankets, do-rags, bonnets, and house shoes will not be permitted. - Apparel that advertises or depicts alcohol, drugs, nudity, tobacco products, any other substance prohibited under FNCF (Legal), violent or criminal themes, gang membership, obscene language, and obscene graphics, will not be permitted. Any disruptive or distractive mode of clothing or appearance that adversely impacts the educational process is prohibited. - Jewelry that causes a distraction or that could be dangerous to the student or other individuals is prohibited (i.e. spiked/studded jewelry, chokers, dog collars, necklaces made out of safety pins or chain links, etc.)

Students must be in compliance with the dress and grooming code the moment they enter the building. Sweatshirts, hoodies, jackets, coats, or any other outer garment cannot be used to cover inappropriate attire. In other words, if a student is asked to remove outerwear the student MUST STILL BE compliant with the Dress Code Policy, Here are the expectations.

Students can be referred at any time during the day if observed to violate the dress and grooming code policy. Students out of compliance will receive consequences according to the Student Code of Conduct and will be required to change clothes to comply with the dress code.

The final decision regarding appropriate dress and appearance shall rest with the administration. Failure to adhere to the dress and grooming code will result in disciplinary consequences. Excessive violations will be considered insubordination and result in an ISS placement.
