Curtis named next Director of Elementary Teaching & Learning

GREENWOOD, IN (November 21, 2024) – Center Grove Community School Corporation has chosen Mrs. Megan Curtis as the next Director of Elementary Teaching & Learning. Her appointment was approved by the CGCSC Board of School Trustees at its November meeting.

Mrs. Curtis comes to Center Grove from Southwest Allen County School Corporation where she most recently served as the literacy specialist. She started her career in Dekalb County Central United Schools where she served as an 8th Grade Language Arts teacher, and Literacy Coordinator. She has also served as a 5th Grade teacher in Southwest Allen and an assistant principal at Adams Central Elementary in Adams Central Community Schools.

Curtis holds a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne and a master's degree in Educational Leadership from Purdue University Fort Wayne.

"Megan's instructional expertise, passion for literacy, and commitment to student success will be a tremendous asset to our entire school community," said Lynn Simmers, Ph.D., assistant superintendent for Teaching & Learning."

Curtis replaces Marcy Szostak who left her position to take another one within the district. She will begin her role in Center Grove on December 9, 2024.
