

FIVE MARIST PILLARS

Presence

Caring for each other, seeking relationships founded on love, being attentive and welcoming with a sense of openness

Being straightforward and genuine, humble and modest, we say what we believe and show it, 'doing good quietly'

Simplicity

Family spirit

Relating to each other as members of a loving family, building community, offering the warmth of welcoming, acceptance, and belonging, sharing our successes and failures. setting clear standards of honesty, mutual respect, and tolerance

Being generous of heart, constant, and persevering in our daily work, confident, visionary, decisive in meeting the needs of our community, and encouraging each other to discover the dignity of our work with young people and with each other

Love of work

In The Way of Mary

Seeing Mary as a perfect model of being Marist, tender, strong, constant in faith, open to God's calling us to our own journey of discipleship

