

FIVE MARKS OF A MARIST STUDENT

Faith-Filled Disciples

Marist students come to possess a strong sense of God and a personal relationship with Jesus, Mary and Saint Marcellin fostered through religious formation, a sacramental life, and prayer.

Empowered Witnesses

Marist students, recognizing Mary as their model and companion, become joyful witnesses to God's love in their lives, enabling them to see Christ in others, to live simply, morally and with integrity, respecting all of life and creation.

Agents of Justice & Service

Marist students grow in their understanding of Catholic social teaching and stand in compassionate solidarity with the least favored.

Spirit-Filled Members of Family & Community

Marist students embody a spirit which celebrates and welcomes all as members of one family created by God.

Servant Leaders

Marist students recognize that they are lovingly created by God with unique gifts and talents which, through their Baptism, they are called to develop and share with the Church and the wider community.

