Notes

We hope you enjoy your Thanksgiving Break!

Kindergarten students have important assessments in December. Please make sure they are at school, on time, every day! We will continue learning through December 19th.

We will have a celebration of our learning on Wednesday, December 18th 3:30-4:30pm. Please come see what your child has been learning in Literacy and PBL!

Please see the attached document about school uniforms from our student handbook.

Reading materials to practice have been sent home.
Please have your child practice each day!

We Are Learning...

- Letter names and sounds
- Blending sounds to read words
- Characters, setting, major events of a story
- Main topic of Informational text
- Writing a sentence using sight words and sounding out words
- Counting to 50 in the correct sequence
- Adding and Subtracting
