

2025-2026 School Year

Secondary Educators: Global Perspectives and Humanities

CIS seeks curious, creative and collaborative middle school and high school educators to join our well-established co-teaching program. The role includes co-teaching with a dedicated EAL teacher as well as work with Science, Math, Art, Music, PE and World Language teachers. Our middle school program has a mix of stand alone English and Humanities teachers and those that teach both Humanities and English to the same sections of students per grade level. We seek either stand alone English and Humanities teachers, or those capable of teaching both disciplines within grade level.

Our high school Global Perspectives/Politics courses span both IGCSE and the IB. We seek: a global perspectives educator capable of spanning both middle school and high school needs; or a middle school Humanities educator who also teaches English; or a high school Global Perspectives teacher who may also teach TOK.

CIS defines learning as a transformative process that leads to conceptual understanding, demonstration of competencies through application and character development as seen through the CIS Core Values of Caring, Inspiration, Integrity, Joy and Respect

Please email our middle school principal, Mr. Andrew Nicholson, at msprincipal@cisb.org.in and our HR manager, Ms. Annie Eugene at jobs@cisb.org.in with a cover letter, resume with at least 3 supervisory references with accurate contact info, scans of degree(s) and certification(s), a passport scan, and a current photo.

The position will remain open until a successful candidate emerges.

Reporting date for successful candidates will be late July, 2024

CIS is fully accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges and the Council of International Schools.
