“As parents of Drake ‘25, we’ve been consistently impressed by Brooks School’s commitment to providing unique educational experiences. His Winter Term in D.C. allowed Drake to dive deep into fascinating political topics, meet Brooks alums and learn about lobbying, while his Students on the Forefront summer internship with Sen. Barry Finegold at the State House in Boston fueled his passion for government and finance. These opportunities sparked Drake’s intellectual curiosity and helped shape his future aspirations. We’re proud to support the Brooks Fund to ensure more students can benefit from these transformative programs that truly embody the school’s mission of delivering the most meaningful educational experience.”
