BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (November 21, 2024) – Bridgeport Public Schools is excited to announce a Community Resource Event being held in collaboration with the Bridgeport Public Education Fund on Saturday, November 23 from 12-2PM at Central High School, 1 Lincoln Boulevard.

Students and families are invited to attend to learn about a variety of community-based organizations and the programs and resources available to them, including:

- Educational Programs
- Health and Wellness Services
- Social Services
- Extracurricular Activities
- Athletic Programs
- Home Visiting Program
- Youth Services
- Mentoring Programs
- Employment Opportunities

In addition to learning about these valuable resources, families will also receive essential items such as meal kits, personal hygiene products, coats, hats, and gloves. The event is open to all families in the Bridgeport community. We encourage everyone to attend and take advantage of this opportunity to connect with local organizations and access essential resources.
