Dear Graduates:

Let us hope that you have gained from M. C. I. increased strength to face the future confidently, secure in the conviction that if you think more about others and less about yourselves, you will be better people and the world a better place in which to live.

Be sure that although you are graduating, you can always call upon us, your friends and teachers, who have learned from you as we hope you have learned from us.

Best wishes,

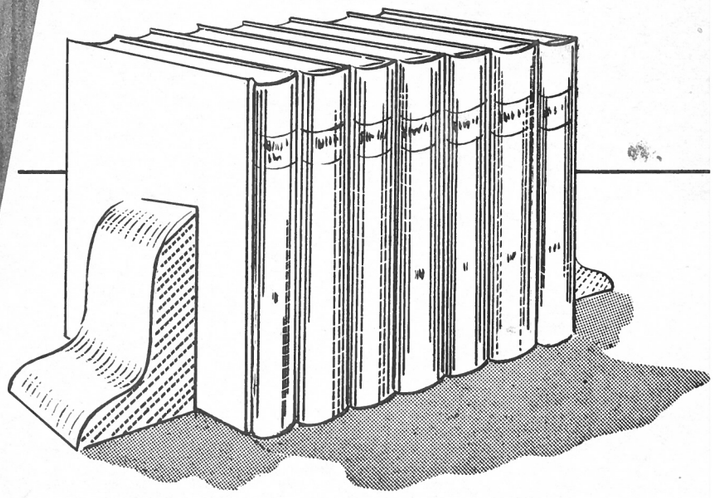

Howard Niblock
