DEDICATION

We, the class of 1956, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Earle N. Vickery, for the past twenty-five years a faithful trustee and treasurer of M. C. I.

DAVIS E. WIGGIN

MRS. BEVERLY PRATT

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We, the class of 1956, express our gratitude to our class advisors for all the help given us during our years at Maine Central Institute.

MAINE CENTRAL INSTITUTE

Founded 1866

PITTSFIELD, MAINE

Dear Graduates:

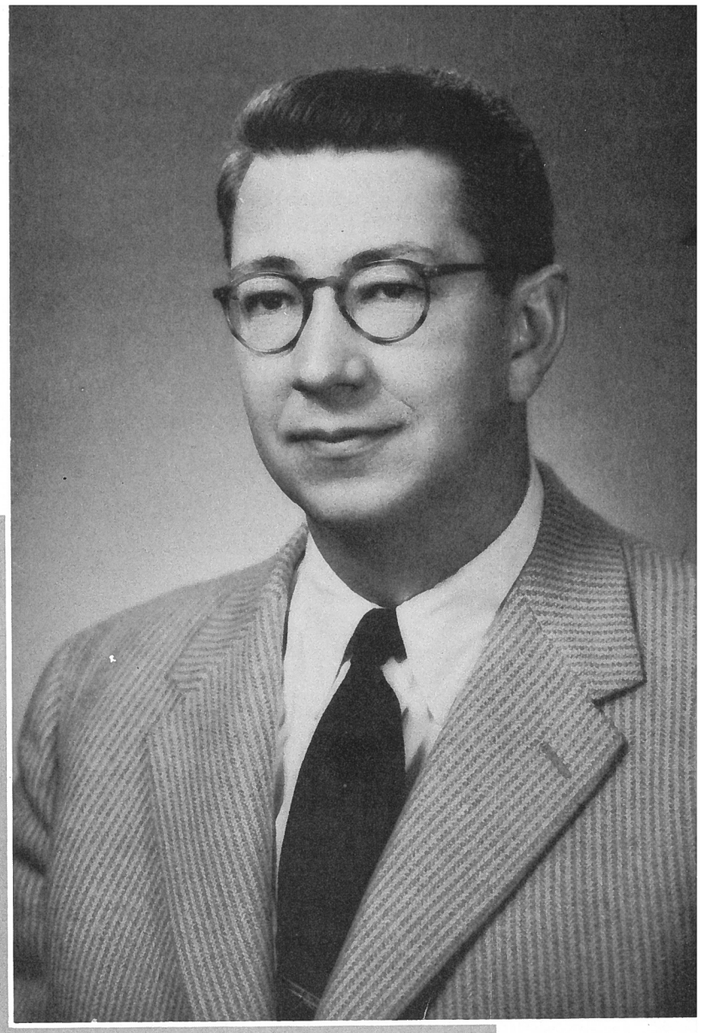

One man has said that it is on the sound education of the people that the security and destiny of every nation chiefly rests. If so, then for democracy well educated people are needed even more. But education is more than knowing how to write shorthand, to translate French, or to bake a pie. It is in knowing how to live.

We, your teachers and friends, hope that you have gained something that has strengthened your faith in democracy and its processes, deepened your religious faith, and renewed your convictions that good people working together can do almost anything. Do your best every task you undertake, and be ever ready to lend your fellow man the kind of help that you, too, would want. If your education has taught you these things, we will be happy.

Best wishes,

W. Howard Niblock

MAINE CENTRAL INSTITUTE
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
PITTSFIELD, MAINE

June, 1956

To the Class of 1956:

Welcome to the ranks of the MCI Alumni! As graduates, you are now all members in good standing of the MCI Alumni Association, with its more than 2,600 living members.

As alumni, you will find you enjoy certain privileges. The Alumni Office is your office on campus, and its executive secretary is here to help you in any way he can. Please do not hesitate to call on the Alumni Office whenever we may be of assistance to you.

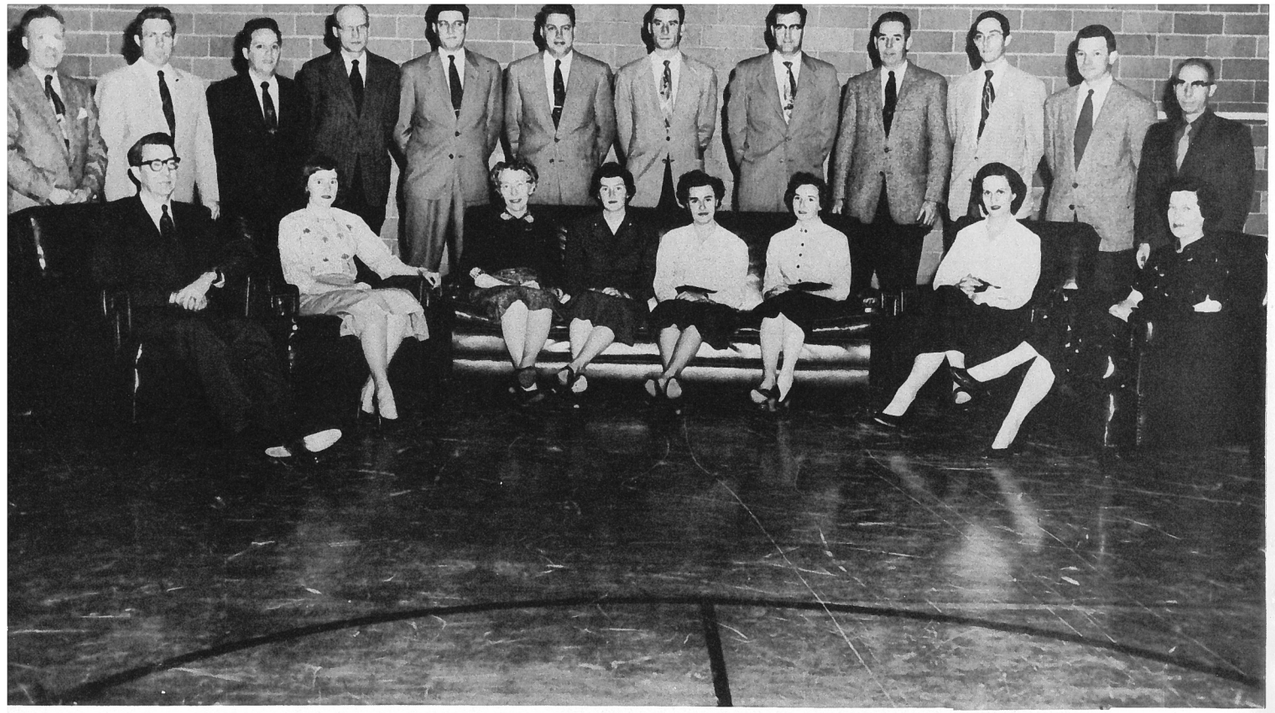

As alumni, you also assume certain responsibilities, for in a very real sense, MCI is now more than ever your school. While you were a student here, MCI was supported by others for your benefit; now you are among those to whom the school must look for support - moral and financial. With that support, MCI will continue to grow and prosper; without the support of its alumni, no school can hope to meet the challenge of changing times.

With every good wish for your success,

Sincerely,
Edward R. Stanley
