Congratulations, Middle School Choristers!

Congratulations to the eleven Middle School choristers who represented our school so well in early November at the Texas Private School Music Educators Association state honor choir concert. It was an evening of beautiful music-making thanks to the efforts of these students and their clinicians.

More wonderful news to report from MS Choir! Two Wolves have been selected to represent our state in the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) national choirs. Fifth grader Javier M. and sixth grader Annie M. were both accepted into the grades 5–7 Soprano/Alto Honor Choir. In March, they will meet and sing with choristers from across the country and work with a distinguished conductor in the Winspear Opera House and the Meyerson Symphony Center. The ACDA honor choirs are incredibly selective, so this is a huge accomplishment for these students and our school!

Keith Celebration

Today, we celebrate the gift God gave us in Jonathan Keith. Since his father's passing, Jonathan has led us spiritually and with his extraordinary gift of music. While we are transitioning, he has maintained the St. Francis music program, honoring his father and assisting our parish. We keep Jacque, Jonathan, and William in our hearts and prayers. Jonathan will leave us soon to begin the next chapter in his life as a member of "The President's Own" United States Marine Band in Washington, DC. We know Rick is so proud of the work he has done. Today, we also celebrate Rick's birthday. We miss him still.

Sunday Morning Book Study Runs Through December 15

Fr. Price continues his Sunday morning book study through December 15. The class meets from 10:15 to 10:45 a.m. in the Parish Office conference room.

Prayer: Our Deepest Longing by Ronald Rolheiser provides a clear exploration of the practice of varieties of prayer at the heart of Christian faith. The five short sections address elements of liturgical worship and personal prayer, as well as some of the struggles involved. Fr. Rolheiser, a Roman Catholic priest, is an internationally renowned speaker and spiritual writer. We have eleven copies of Prayer: Our Deepest Longing on hand, which may be purchased for $10 each.
